Emerging Approaches in Design and New Connections With Nature Özdamar, Esen Gökçe, Tandoğan, Okşan, 2021-12-03
In today's changing and transforming socio economic political cultural and technological paradigms we encounter many methodologies approaches proposals and practices in reconsidering the disappearing or emerging relations in the human nonhuman environment nature interaction These approaches proposals and practices range from new methods of urban gardening to biophilic design and augmented immersive environments However these human centric approaches which only aim to meet their needs or emerge as technology oriented replicas and representations of nature lead to a departure from a holistic approach to the natural and artificial environment Therefore how can new and emerging approaches or methodologies draw a holistic framework for environmental health sustainability wellness and co existence between environments for all living beings Emerging Approaches in Design and New Connections With Nature covers a variety of topics related to the intersection between nature environment and ways of living and provides a comprehensive guide to biophilic design and the idea of design and nature including benefits theories and effects Covering topics such as biophilic design and sustainability soundscapes and landscapes and urban environments and design it is ideal for architects designers urban planners landscape designers policymakers engineers interior designers practitioners students academicians and researchers Annual Report ... South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training, 2016 Biostatistics Modeling and Public Health Applications Ding-Geng Chen, Carlos A. Coelho, 2024-12-13 This book provides an overview and compilation of contemporary topics and innovative approaches in biostatistical modeling through their applications to evidence based public health research and decision making This book covers topics in 3 parts as 1 Biostatistical Modeling 2 Imaging Data Analysis and 3 Public Health Applications Topics should appeal to both expert statisticians as well as health researchers interested in biostatistical methodological applications in evidence based health research The book is a resourceful manual and can be used as an authoritative reference The features covered in this book will appeal to researchers where public health research is being rigorously conducted Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written Page 4 of cover Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube, 2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development

Youth and Non-Violence in Africa's Fragile Contexts
Akin Iwilade, Tarila Marclint Ebiede, 2022-10-22 This book makes an important contribution to the conflict literature and to new ways of thinking about agency and social life in fragile contexts It does this by engaging with often ignored peace infrastructures In this book the contributors highlight different ways in which non violence is deployed by Africa's youth to navigate difficult violent contexts Drawing on empirically grounded case studies from the Central African Republic to Zimbabwe this book explores how similar or indeed the same social infrastructures can be deployed for both violence and non violence and the important factors that drive many youth to take the non 1 violence option even when order appears to collapse around them The authors also explore how for instance systems of organizing survive violent disruptions to the so called rhythms of everyday life and when they do how they are then repurposed by youth to help them survive violence

Hospitalities Merle A. Williams, 2020-12-23 This collection of imaginative essays traces notions of hospitality across a sequence of theoretical permutations not only as an urgent challenge for our conflicted present but also as foundational for ethics and resonant within the play of language The plural form of the title highlights the inter implication of hospitality with its exclusive others holding suspicious rejection in tension with the receptiveness that transforms socio cultural relations Geographically the collection traverses the globe from Australia and Africa to Britain Europe and the United States weaving exchanges from south to north as well as south to south and thoughtfully remapping our world Temporally the chapters range from the primordial hospitality offered by the earth through the Middle Ages to contemporary detention centres and the crisis of homelessness Thematically hospitality embraces sites of dwelling and the land humans and animals in their complex embodiment spectres and the dead dolls and art objects This text openly welcomes the reader to participate in shaping fresh critical discourses of the hospitable whether in literary and linguistic studies art and architecture philosophy or politics

Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu, Denyse Webbstock, 2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders

Decolonising Curricula and Pedagogy in Higher Education Shannon Morreira, Kathy Luckett, Siseko H. Kumalo, Manjeet Ramgotra, 2021-05-31 This book brings together voices from the Global South and Global North to think through what it means in practice to decolonise contemporary higher education Occasionally a theoretical concept arises in academic debate that cuts across individual disciplines Such concepts which may well have already been in use and debated for some time become suddenly newly and increasingly important at a particular historical juncture Right now debates around decolonisation are on the rise globally as we become increasingly aware that many of the old power imbalances brought into play by colonialism have not gone away in the present The authors in this volume bring theories of decoloniality into conversation with the structural cultural institutional relational and personal logics of curriculum pedagogy and teaching practice What is enabled in practice when academics set out to decolonize their teaching spaces What commonalities and differences are there where academics set out to do so in universities across disparate political and geographical spaces This book explores what is at stake when decolonial work is taken from the level of theory into actual practice The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics

Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall, Isabel Hofmeyr, 2024-11 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences Proceedings of the 20th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Mafalda Patuleia, 2024

Perspectives on Lifelong Learning and Global Citizenship Sarah Stanlick, Whitney Szmodis, 2022-09-06 This book lays the groundwork for the future of global citizenship and it discusses where we are now where to go from here and how all of this fits into a lifelong learning context It incorporates case studies meta narratives and empirical studies to support cosmopolitanism through a lifelong learning lens and is a must read for educators activists non governmental organizations civil society and community organizations The framing for this book is with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 in mind ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all with the intent that all learners will acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to promote sustainable lifestyles human rights gender equality promotion of a culture of peace and non violence global citizenship and appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture s contribution to sustainable development UN Sustainable Development Goal target 4.7 It is through this lens that this book showcases the work of researchers practitioners civil society and thought leaders in global citizenship for lifelong learning While this tension between nationalism and cosmopolitanism exists the wheels of globalization still turn and shape our local national and global connections Through this exploration this book lifts up examples of global citizenship education done well across the age spectrum and in a variety of contexts The binding factor is the core values ethics and moral structure of a world in collaboration toward its larger human and ecological thriving It unpacks complex topics such as ethical and cultural relativism accountability and responsibility in a global world decolonial education and unmaking ideas of development and ethical models for community based global learning and engagement What voices are missing in the discussion of global learning and global citizenship education

The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa
