PROLOGUE: THE BEGINNING
 The first chapter, titled "The Beginning," sets the stage for the story. It introduces the main characters and the setting. The story begins with a description of the landscape, which is a vast, open plain under a clear sky. The sun is shining brightly, and the air is warm. The characters are introduced one by one, each with a brief description of their appearance and personality. The first character is a young man named John, who is tall, thin, and has a friendly smile. He is wearing a simple, light-colored shirt and trousers. The second character is a woman named Mary, who is shorter than John and has dark, curly hair. She is wearing a dark dress with a white collar. The third character is an older man named Mr. Smith, who is balding and has a serious expression. He is wearing a dark suit and a white shirt. The fourth character is a young girl named Sarah, who is the youngest of the group. She has blonde hair and is wearing a pink dress. The story then moves to a scene where the characters are gathered around a campfire. John is telling a story to the others, and they are all listening intently. The fire is crackling, and the night is dark. The story ends with a description of the landscape as the sun sets, and the characters go to sleep.
