Celluloid Mischief Erich Goode,2023-05-30 Celluloid Mischief examines the portrayal of wrongdoing and deviant behavior in film The premise is that films are material products of both individual and collective imagination that reflect the values and norms of the society that produce them On this basis it is possible to perceive how society understands and classifies particular kinds of behavior and assigns or designates classes of people and actions as good or bad So called wrongdoing in movies then tells us about real life norms the violation of those norms and the efforts to punish and control the perpetrators of those violators Motion pictures embody information about the social world they constitute a universe of raw particulars that await excavation and analysis By applying the appropriate approach what happens on the screen can guide us to an understanding of society and culture Films are commercial products the people who make them are members of a society influenced by that society who attempt to appeal to lots of other members of that society by producing something that they want to see A society s films tell us a great deal about the taste and proclivities of the society that produce and consume them Using postwar and contemporary Hollywood cinema as case studies this book demonstrates the complex and evolving nature of modern America s social economic and political values

3 Strokes In 3 Weeks Saved My Life Leo Costa Jr.,2021-03-25 There were things I was doing in my life that caused 3 strokes in 3 weeks and I needed to figure out what they were and why this had happened to me so that I could make the change in my life I was in desperate need of making Having 3 strokes in 3 weeks was a huge wake up call I knew I needed to change something before I killed myself and I believed the only way I could do that was by finding an answer as to how I got here in the first place This meant asking myself what was I doing wrong and why was I doing it I needed to know and understand what I was doing to my body so that I could come out of this recover and make sure it never happened again This change was going to begin be rediscovering who I was While looking back in hindsight I was surprised to uncover some things about myself I realized that I have extreme behavior for the things I have passion for and this took a big part in the conclusion as to why I was putting so much stress on my body When I have a passion for something I learned I have perfect willingness and drive to be the best at it no matter the consequences that may follow I was surprised to learn that in the journey of my life there were these pathways that I had chosen without thinking at the times why I was choosing them and now those choices were helping me understand my behavior giving me the ability to control them for the future 3 strokes in 3 weeks was my wake up call That s what it took in order to save me from myself
