Band 1 Marks 9-10

Wide ranging and closely focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.

Band 2 Marks 7-8

Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.

This suggests

The connotations of this adjective are

The writer's intentions are to

The writer has achieved a feeling of

The "feline" is described as having "great, yellow, black-slitted orbs". The writer's intention is to create the image of a monster from a fairy tale or horror story. Yellow eyes with black slits are associated with the devil. The use of the noun 'orbs' is effective because it makes the eyes seem unnaturally large and round, alien and terrifying. This makes the reader feel trepidation. Furthermore the adjective "black" has connotations of darkness & evil.
