Quorum Sean Buckley, 2015-10-27 The Arab Spring that offered hope to millions has withered and died as civil war and terror engulf much of the Middle East Russia has annexed Crimea and continues to support rebels throughout the Ukraine In Gaza Israeli and Hamas forces continue to fight but the west increases the pressure on Israel to find a permanent resolution to the conflict The war in Syria has ripped the country apart and a new Jihadist group calling itself Islamic State has emerged to control vast swathes of Syria and northern Iraq dispensing a barbarism not seen since the Middle Ages The flow of refugees from the war ravaged areas of Africa and the Middle East increasingly resembles a tsunami of human suffering that threatens the very infrastructure of the EU As the tentacles of terror touch its borders it seems like only a matter of time before the West is drawn into what could develop into a new World War When Gianfranco Molinari of the newly formed European Financial Bureau gets drawn into investigating the seemingly obscure murders of two men in the quiet Danish city of Odense it soon becomes apparent that he is in a race against time where the very existence of Europe as we know it is at stake
