Where Can I Sell My Textbooks:

Produce, Price and Promote Your Self-Published Fiction or Non-fiction Book and e-Book Paul Lima, 2013-07 If you are interested in this book I presume you have written a book or plan to write one and are thinking of self publishing it If so this is the place to start If you self publish a non fiction book of interest to a defined target market or a book of fiction for people who read the genre you have produced you can begin to promote it to interested readers I have sold close to 10 000 books So while I m no E L James author of the originally self published 50 Shades of Grey I am a happy and profitable self published author Perhaps you can become one too Having said that your desire to self publish may not be all about book sales You may be looking to write a book to give to family and friends You may be looking to gain the credibility that publishing a book gives a speaker or workshop leader You may have other reasons for publishing your book No matter your reason this book will answer many of your self publishing questions point you in the right direction and get you started In short as the title says this book will help you produce price and promote your self published book      Ascendance of a Bookworm: Part 2 Volume 2 Miya Kazuki, 2020-01-20 As Myne continues her busy life as an apprentice blue shrine maiden some good news changes everything Her mother is pregnant Naturally Myne immediately sets out to make a picture book for her future little sibling But there s still so much she doesn t know about the temple that doing anything is a struggle She s forced into the education of a shrine maiden and has her hands full with her new attendants She has a mountain of work as the orphanage director too As always Myne has bitten off more than she can chew but she charges forward with her love of books giving her strength And as it becomes clear that someone with her level of mana will not continue to go unnoticed the door to the world of nobles opens and the plot escalates dramatically Winter approaches and a blizzard is about to fall upon this bibliofantasy      Books in the Digital Age John B. Thompson, 2013-10-21 The book publishing industry is going through a period of profound and turbulent change brought about in part by the digital revolution What is the role of the book in an age preoccupied with computers and the internet How has the book publishing industry been transformed by the economic and technological upheavals of recent years and how is it likely to change in the future This is the first major study of the book publishing industry in Britain and the United States for more than two decades Thompson focuses on academic and higher education publishing and analyses the evolution of these sectors from 1980 to the present He shows that each sector is characterized by its own distinctive logic or dynamic of change and that by reconstructing this logic we can understand the problems challenges and opportunities faced by publishing firms today He also shows that the digital revolution has had and continues to have a profound impact on the book publishing business although the real impact of this revolution has little to do with the ebook scenarios imagined by many commentators Books in the Digital Age will become a standard work on the publishing industry at the beginning of the 21st century It will be of great interest to students taking courses in the sociology of culture media and cultural studies and publishing It will also be of great value to professionals in the publishing industry educators

Subcommittee on Higher Education and Workforce Training, 2013      Consuming Books Stephen Brown, 2006-04-18 The buying selling and writing of books is a colossal industry in which marketing looms large yet there are very few books which deal with book marketing how to texts excepted and fewer still on book consumption This innovative text not only rectifies this but also argues that far from being detached the book business in fact epitomises today's Entertainment Economy fast moving hit driven intense competition rapid technological change etc Written by an impressive roster of renowned marketing authorities many with experience of the book trade and all gifted writers in their own right Consuming Books steps back from the practicalities of book marketing and takes a look at the industry from a broader consumer research perspective Consisting of sixteen chapters divided into four loose sections this key text covers a historical overview the often acrimonious marketing literature interface the consumers of books from book groups to bookcrossing a consideration of the tensions that both literary types and marketers feel With something for everyone Consuming Books not only complements the how to genre but provides the depth that previous studies of book consumption conspicuously lack

By the Book Pamela Paul, 2014-10-28 Sixty five of the world's leading writers open up about the books and authors that have meant the most to them These wide ranging interviews are conducted by Pamela Paul the editor of the The New York Times Book Review featuring personalities as varied as David Sedaris Hilary Mantel Michael Chabon Khaled Hosseini Anne Lamott and James Patterson These questions and answers admit us into the private worlds of these authors as they reflect on their work habits reading preferences inspirations pet peeves and recommendations By the Book contains the full uncut interviews reflecting a range of experiences and observations that deepens readers understanding of the literary sensibility and the writing process      The Empathic Civilization Jeremy Rifkin, 2009-12-31 One of the leading big picture thinkers of our day Utne Reader delivers his boldest work in this erudite tough minded and far reaching manifesto Never has the world seemed so completely united in the form of communication commerce and culture and so savagely torn apart in the form of war financial meltdown global warming and even the migration of diseases No matter how much we put our minds to the task of meeting the challenges of a rapidly globalizing world the human race seems to continually come up short unable to muster the collective mental resources to truly think globally and act locally In his most ambitious book to date bestselling social critic Jeremy Rifkin shows that this disconnect between our vision for the world and our ability to realize that vision lies in the current state of human consciousness The very way our brains are structured disposes us to a way of feeling thinking and acting in the world that is no longer entirely relevant to the new environments we have created for ourselves The human made environment is rapidly morphing into a global space yet our existing modes of consciousness are structured for earlier eras of history which are just as quickly fading away Humanity Rifkin argues finds itself on the cusp of its greatest experiment to date refashioning human consciousness so that human beings can mutually live and flourish in the new globalizing society In essence this shift in consciousness is based upon reaching out to others But to resist this change in human relations and modes of thinking Rifkin contends would spell ineptness and disaster in facing the new challenges around us As the forces of globalization accelerate deepen and become ever more complex the older faith based and rational forms of consciousness are likely to become stressed and even dangerous as they attempt to navigate a world increasingly beyond their reach and control Indeed the emergence of this empathetic consciousness has implications for the future that will likely be as profound and far reaching as when Enlightenment philosophers upended faith based consciousness with the canon of reason

The Land between Two Rivers Tom Sleigh, 2018-02-06 Essays on the urgency of our global refugee crisis and our capacity as artists and citizens to confront it Tom Sleigh describes himself donning a flak jacket and helmet working as a journalist inside militarized war zones and refugee camps as a sort of Rambo Jr With self deprecation and empathetic humor these essays recount his experiences during several tours in Africa and in the Middle Eastern region once called Mesopotamia the land between two rivers Sleigh asks three central questions What did I see How could I write about it Why did I write about it The first essays in The Land between Two Rivers focus on the lives of refugees in Syria Lebanon Jordan Kenya Somalia and Iraq Under the conditions of military occupation famine and war their stories can be harrowing even desperate but they are also laced with wily humor and an undeluded hopefulness their lives having little to do with their depictions in mass media The second part of the book explores how writing might be capable of honoring the texture of these individuals experiences while remaining faithful to political emotions rather than political convictions Sleigh examines the works of Anna Akhmatova Mahmoud Darwish Ashur Etwebi David Jones Tomas Tranströmer and others as guiding spirits The final essays meditate on youth restlessness illness and Sleigh's motivations for writing his own experiences in order to move out into the world concluding with a beautiful remembrance of Sleigh's once the United States entered the war He joined the U S Army in 1943 and soon found himself with General Patton s old Hell on Wheels division at Omaha Beach then in Paris at the time of its liberation and later at the Battle of the Bulge The final chapter concludes with Brombert s return to America his enrollment at Yale University and the beginning of a literary voyage whose origins are poignantly captured in this coming of age story Trains of Thought is a virtuosic accomplishment and a memoir that is likely to become a classic account of both memory and experience
