The English Essay and Essayists Hugh Walker, 1915      Children's Catalog, 1909      Literary criticism for students, selected from English essays Edward Tompkins McLaughlin, 1893      Steps To English Composition Tom Thumb Essays Book 1 H. Martin, Tom Thumb Essays have been written for younger children who have just begun to do a bit of English Composition The essays given in the book are descriptive reflective and biographical The language is simple and easy to understand      English Essays Walter Cochrane Bronson, 1905      Language Use and Language Learning in CLIL Classrooms Christiane Dalton-Puffer, Tarja Nikula, Ute Smit, 2010 This volume explores a highly topical issue in second and foreign language education the spreading practice in mainstream education to teach content subjects through a foreign language CLIL has been enthusiastically embraced as a language enrichment measure in many contexts and finally research can offer principled insights into its dynamics and potentials The editors introductory and concluding chapters offer a synthesis of current CLIL research as well as a critical discussion of unresolved issues relating both to theoretical concerns and research practice The individual contributions by authors from a range of European contexts report on current empirical research in this dynamic field The focus of these chapters ranges from theoretical to empirical from learning outcomes to classroom talk examining both the written and spoken mode across secondary and tertiary educational contexts This volume is a valuable resource not only for researchers and teachers but also for policy makers      Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set E: Educational Psychology 10 vol set Various, 2021-12-02 Mini set E Educational Psychology re issues 10 volumes originally published between 1937 and 1991 and examines the impact psychology and cognitive science has had on education and teaching practice during the twentieth century      List of Books for Public School Libraries of the State of Wisconsin Wisconsin. Department of Public Instruction, 1910      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      Resources in Education, 2001-10      Contemporary English-Language Indian Children's Literature Michelle Superle, 2011-05-09 Concurrent with increasing scholarly attention toward national children's literatures Contemporary English language Indian Children's Literature explores an emerging body of work that has thus far garnered little serious critical attention Superle critically examines the ways Indian children's writers have represented childhood in relation to the Indian nation Indian cultural identity and Indian girlhood From a framework of postcolonial and feminist theories children's novels published between 1988 and 2008 in India are compared with those from the United Kingdom and North America from the same period considering the differing ideologies and the current textual constructions of childhood at play in each. Broadly Superle contends that over the past twenty years an aspirational view of childhood has developed in this literature, a view that positions children as powerful participants in the project of enabling positive social transformation. Her main argument, formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts, is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda: they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation, their own well-adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora, and/or their own empowered girlhoods. Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College. She has taught children's literature, composition, and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL Forum, 1982; The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1907; The English Language: Volume 1, Essays by English and American Men of Letters, 1490-1839 W. F. Bolton, 1966-01-01. This is a collection of essays about the English language by English and American men of letters from the sixteenth to the nineteenth centuries that is until the rise of formal linguistic studies. The writers represented are concerned with the history, the use, the reform, or the changing nature of English. Topics discussed include the defence of English as a literary language, the relationship with other languages, propriety in literary style, the psychological bases of speech, the relationship between words and things, usage, the need for academies and standards of correctness, the rise of lexicography, spelling reform, prescriptive grammar. These essays are the most important serious attempts to consider the language from various standpoints. Students of English in university departments will find this a convenient and comprehensive collection. It is also in itself an illustration of the development of the literary language. The Publisher, 1906 The Seventeenth-century English Essay Elbert Nevius Sebring Thompson, 1926 The English illustrated magazine [ed. by J. W. C. Carr]. Joseph William Comyns Carr, 1883 The English Catalogue of Books [annual] Sampson Low, 1927 Vols for 1898-1968 include a directory of publishers Steps To English Composition Junior Essays Book 2 H.
