meets Christopher McDougall's Born to Run in this immersive investigative look at the hidden culture of cannabis use among elite athletes as well as weekend warriors and the surprising emerging science behind the elusive exhilarating runner's high they all seek. Pot makes exercise fun. The link between performance enhancement and cannabis has been an open secret for many years so much so that with the wide sweeping national legalization of cannabis combining weed and working out has become the hottest new wellness trend. Why then is there still a skewed perception around this leafy substance that it only produces the lazy red eyed stoner laid out on a couch somewhere munching on junk food. In fact scientists have conducted extensive research that uncovers the power of the runner's high the true holy grail of aerobic activity that was long believed to be caused by endorphins. In an extraordinary reversal scientists believe marijuana may actually be the key to getting more Americans off their phones and on to their feet. In Runner's High seasoned investigative journalist Josiah Hesse takes readers on a journey through the secret world of stoned athletes describing astounding cannabis inspired physical and mental transformations just like he experienced. From the economics of the 20 billion CBD market to the inherent inequalities in the enforcement of marijuana prohibition from the mind body connection behind the runner's high to the best way to make your own cannabis infused power bars Runner's High takes this groundbreaking science out of the lab and onto the trail court field and pitch fundamentally changing the way we think about exercise recovery and cannabis. Billboard, 2011-04-02
