Part B, answers

Note

There are 14 marks available for this section.

The marks available for each question are shown in the left column. For two-mark questions requiring two answers, the entire answer must be correct to be awarded the marks. No part or half marks may be given.

During your exam briefing to the delegates, explain that you are not looking for lengthy answers but simple brief statements.

The delegates are permitted to answer in their own words, so please be aware of the language used, it may not be verbatim as in the trainer answer grid. Alternative phrases or language may be acceptable, providing it can be identifiable when compared against the wording on the marking grid. Duplication or repetition of phrases within answers will not attract marks. It is understandable that some delegates will provide answers with different phrases or language, that are 'industry familiar', and are acceptable as correct answers.

Delegates should not be marked on spelling or grammar, however, if the answers are illegible, no marks can be awarded.

Some of the answers provided contain a list of possible answers. It is not an exhaustive list and trainers should use their discretion if a delegate has answered correctly.
