Crossing Borders in University Learning and Teaching Jane Spiro, 2022-02-06 Uncovering aspects of university culture which are often hidden or misunderstood this book brings together international perspectives showing the matches and mismatches between experience and expectation as both staff and student face new academic cultures Drawing on the stories of students and members of staff in the higher education sector as starting points for analysis this book considers aspects such as the dynamics and pragmatics of university settings from tutorial to lecture the assignment and multiple text types from reflective logs to essays different interpretations of grades grading and feedback Topics are explored with examples from critical incidents and narratives in international contexts both where staff or students cross cultures and borders and where they are functioning within the university culture with which they are most familiar Ideal both for those new to learning and teaching in higher education and those seeking to refresh their practice this must read book uses case studies and narratives to illustrate key challenges academics and students face With consideration given to learning across cultures the narratives and topics lead to enquiries which the reader can ask and research for themselves to find helpful answers to explain their own university experiences Summary of Stephen Cope's The Great Work of Your Life Everest Media,2022-06-21T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book

Sample Book Insights 1 The Battle of Kurukshetra is the definitive struggle of its age It marks the end of one great mythic era and the beginning of another The battle of Kurukshetra ushers in the Dark Age the last of the four great eras foreseen by the Seers of ancient India Traces of Light Ann Cooper Albright,2007-09-04 The first major English language study of a legendary dancer The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Volume 48 Thomas Jefferson,2025-02-04 A definitive scholarly edition of the correspondence and papers of Thomas Jefferson Jefferson sends his annual message to Congress He submits the peace treaty with Tripoli but ratification takes months as the Senate asks for supporting documentation and Congress considers the request of Ahmad Qaramanli for compensation The president desires action to make Spain negotiate outstanding issues and urges defensive preparations in the event of armed conflict Congress appropriates 2 million for the purchase of Florida and approves the appointment of James Bowdoin and John Armstrong as commissioners to negotiate New restrictive measures by Great Britain that threaten to choke off American trade with the West Indies spark memorials by merchants in seaport cities After Congress passes an act outlawing trade with Haiti for a year Timothy Pickering decries the administration s spaniel servility to France Representatives of the Cherokee Potawatomi Sac Fox Osage Missouri Kansas Otoe Iowa Pawnee and Sioux nations come to Washington South American revolutionary Francisco de Miranda travels in the United States secretly collecting men and materials for a projected uprising in Venezuela Tunisian envoy Sulayman Melmelli is in Washington Jefferson s daughter Martha Randolph and her family make an extended visit to the capital during which his newest grandchild James Madison Randolph is born in the President s House Anthropological Approaches to Reading Migrant Writing Deborah Reed-Danahay,Helena Wulff,2023-10-24 This book brings fresh perspectives to the anthropology of migration It focuses on what migrants write and how anthropologists may incorporate insights gained from engagement with this writing into research methods and writing practices The volume includes a range of contributions from leading scholars in the field all organized around a striking set of questions about the conditions in which migrant narratives are written and translated the audiences for which they are intended the genres and media through which they are disseminated and what such stories include or leave out The contributors to this volume demonstrate an innovative shift in anthropological methods by showing how fiction and nonfiction graphic memoir and autoethnography song lyrics as well as social media posts and images unsettle the power dynamics in the study of migration narrative This book will serve as important supplemental reading for courses on migration literary anthropology ethnographic methods and sociocultural anthropology in general Its interdisciplinary perspective will appeal to a broad range of scholars and students with interests in migration narrative and anthropological writing genres Linguistic Diversity and Discrimination Sender Dovchin,Qian Gong,Toni

Dobinson, Maggie McAlinden, 2023-12-11 This collection explores the ways in which women in academia from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds mediate the negotiation of linguistic discrimination and linguistic diversity in higher education using autoethnography to make visible their lived experiences The volume shows how women in academia from CaLD backgrounds particularly those living or working in the Global South draw on their multivalent complex linguistic backgrounds and cultural repertoires to cope with and manage linguistic and systemic gender discrimination In adopting autoethnography as its key methodology the book encourages these academics to write themselves beyond the conventions from which women in academia have traditionally been forced to speak and write The collection features perspectives from women across geographic contexts sub fields and levels of experience whose stories are not often told putting at the fore their narratives lived experiences and career trajectories in mediating issues around power ideology language policy social justice teaching and learning and identity construction In so doing the book challenges the wider field to expand the borders of discussions on linguistic discrimination and higher education institutions to critically engage with these issues This book will be of interest to scholars in applied linguistics sociolinguistics and cultural studies The Friend ,1909 The Edinburgh Review ,1867 Decolonizing 1968 Burleigh Hendrickson, 2022-11-15 Decolonizing 1968 explores how activists in 1968 transformed university campuses across Europe and North Africa into sites of contestation where students administrators and state officials collided over definitions of modernity and nationhood after empire Burleigh Hendrickson details protesters versions of events to counterbalance more visible narratives that emerged from state controlled media centers and ultimately describes how the very education systems put in place to serve the French state during the colonial period ended up functioning as the crucible of postcolonial revolt Hendrickson not only unearths complex connections among activists and their transnational networks across Tunis Paris and Dakar but also weaves together their overlapping stories and participation in France s May 68 Using global protest to demonstrate the enduring links between France and its former colonies Decolonizing 1968 traces the historical relationships between colonialism and 1968 activism examining transnational networks that emerged and new human and immigrants rights initiatives that directly followed As a result Hendrickson reveals that 1968 is not merely a flashpoint in the history of left wing protest but a key turning point in the history of decolonization Thanks to generous funding from Penn State and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornell.edu cornell open and other repositories Narratives of Non-English L2 Language Teachers Nur Yiğitoğlu Aptoula, Melinda Reichelt, 2025-07-25 This book highlights the narratives of teachers of non English languages Much of what we know about L2 teaching is based on conclusions drawn from research on teaching in English as an L2 with languages besides English being given short shrift or ignored entirely Examining L2 teaching practices related to non English languages can help us gain a more comprehensive understanding of language pedagogy This is because different target languages play different roles in the contexts in which they are taught which influences teaching and learning in significant ways The contributions in this book include chapters from L2 instructors who teach a wide range of languages in different settings including different geographical sociolinguistic and institutional contexts With narratives focused on pedagogical practices and practical materials this resource will be beneficial to pre service teachers teacher educators and researchers in language education as well as in service teacher training programs

State Capitalism and Working-class Radicalism in the French Aircraft Industry Herrick Chapman,1991-01-01 Using the example of the aircraft industry which takes him like an arrow to the heart of many of the key conflicts in French life between 1936 and 1948 Herrick Chapman has written a penetrating and exceptionally well documented account of the way that France developed her present style of industrial relations in which the state plays such a central role No book I know so successfully integrates the history of aviation with the political and social history of France Both thorough and thoughtful it is an impressive achievement Robert Wohl

University of California Los Angeles An unusual innovative book based on impressive research that throws new light in a major way on twentieth century French politics and society one of the most interesting and original monographs in modern French history in a long time Robert O Paxton Columbia University This is a breakthrough of considerable importance Chapman will become the leading North American perhaps even English speaking historian of contemporary France George Ross Brandeis University
