Without Roots Europe Relativism Christianity Islam Pope Benedict XVI:

Without Roots Pope Benedict XVI, Marcello Pera, 2006-02-13 Pope Benedict XVI and the President of the Italian Senate offer a critique of the spiritual and political crises affecting Europe discussing human rights morality relativism terrorism and relations with the United States Without Roots Benoît XVI ((pape ;), Marcello Pera, 2014 Bringing together their unique vantage points as leaders of Church and State Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger and Marcello Pera challenge us to imagine what can be the future of a civilization that has abandoned its moral and cultural history They call on the West to embrace a spiritual rather than political renewal and to accept the moral values that alone can help us to make sense of changes in technology economics and society Without Roots Joseph Ratzinger, Marcello Pera, 2007-01-30 Bringing together their unique vantage points as leaders of Church and State Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger and Marcello Pera challenge us to imagine what can be the future of a civilization that has abandoned its moral and cultural history They call on the West to embrace a spiritual rather than political renewal and to accept the moral values that alone can help us to make sense of changes in technology economics and society Without Roots Joseph Ratzinger, Marcello Pera, 2007-03-09 On May 12 2004 Pope Benedict XVI then Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger addressed the Italian Senate on the state of the West the very same day Joseph Pera President of the Italian Senate spoke before the Lateran College of the Papal University Together they called upon the West to confront the spiritual cultural and political malaise that have afflicted it in the earliest years of the 21st century In the months that ensued before Cardinal Ratzinger's election to the papacy they developed their ideas into the eloquent dialogue that is Without Roots a book that quickly became an Italian bestseller and is even more timely today than ever With Europe shaken by the war in Iraq terrorism security Israel relations with the U S immigration and the rejection of the EU constitution in both France and the Netherlands the issue of European identity has profound implications for the rest of the world Bringing together their unique vantage points as leaders of Church and State Pope Benedict XVI and Pera challenge us to imagine what can be the future of a civilization that has abandoned its history for a relativist secularism They call on the West to embrace a spiritual rather than political renewal and to accept the moral beliefs that alone can help us to make sense of changes in technology economics and society Pope Benedict XVI joins the President of the Italian Senate to offer a provocative critique of the spiritual cultural and political crisis afflicting the West The Social and Political Thought of Benedict XVI Thomas R. Rourke, 2010-01-01 Covering the entire trajectory of his religious life this book identifies and analyzes the foundations of political and social order in the philosophy of Pope Benedict XVI Thomas R Rourke explains Benedict's belief in the value of the Christian tradition's contribution to a contemporary politics of reason Obeying the Truth Grazia Mangano Ragazzi, 2014-02 In the last century St Catherine of Siena an Italian lay woman and mystic of the fourteenth century was named first a Doctor of the Church and then one of six patron saints of Europe This recognition of her life and spirituality has been accompanied by increased interest in her writings Obeying the Truth addresses the key concept of discretion in Catherine's spiritual works This concept synonymous with prudence interacts on many levels with crucial aspects of her teaching Grazia Mangano Ragazzi argues that discretion to which Catherine dedicates several passages in her writings is a helpful even decisive tool for interpreting the whole edifice of the saint's spirituality Providing a textual analysis of discretion in Catherine's major works Mangano Ragazzi situates Catherine historically through comparison with her predecessors Augustine Cassian Benedict Gregory the Great Bernard Richard of St Victor and Thomas Aquinas and some contemporaries Domenico Cavalca Bridget of Sweden John Colombini and Raymond of Capua She goes on to demonstrate how discretion unifies Catherine's spiritual reflection The book includes a scrupulously selected bibliography of works in English Italian and French This is both a focused monograph on discretion and an ideal introduction to the saint's writings Catherine's insistence that the virtuous life is a pre requisite for any genuine spiritual experience is a warning that is more necessary today than ever

Leisure and Labor Anthony P. Coleman, 2019-11-27 Using Josef Pieper's Leisure as a point of departure the contributors to this volume share a mutual concern for the diminishing role of the liberal arts in Catholic higher education The overwhelming impression they share is that U S Catholic universities with notable exceptions have forgotten the very goal of university education and especially Catholic university education to aid in forming young men and women to pursue the truth and helping them to become freer persons

Europe's Encounter with Islam Luca Mavelli, 2013-03-01 In the last few years the Muslim presence in Europe has been increasingly perceived as problematic Events such as the French ban on headscarves in public schools the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg have hit the front pages of newspapers the world over and prompted a number of scholarly debates on Muslims capacity to comply with the seemingly neutral and pluralistic rules of European secularity Luca Mavelli argues that this perspective has prevented an in depth reflection on the limits of Europe's secular tradition and its role in Europe's conflictual encounter with Islam Through an original reading of Michel Foucault's spiritual notion of knowledge and an engagement with key thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to Jürgen Habermas Mavelli articulates a contending genealogy of European secularity While not denying the latter's achievements in terms of pluralism and autonomy he suggests that Europe's secular tradition has also contributed to forms of isolation which translate into Europe's incapacity to perceive its encounter with Islam as an opportunity rather than a threat Drawing on this theoretical perspective Mavelli offers a contending account of some of the most important recent controversies surrounding Islam in Europe and investigates the postsecular as a normative model to engage with the tensions at the heart of European secularity Finally he advances the possibility of a Europe willing to reconsider its established secular narratives which may identify in the encounter with Islam an opportunity to flourish and cultivate its democratic qualities and postnational commitments This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and international relations social and political theory and Islam in Europe

prepared to confront challenges and defend principles in a volatile modern world Those with strong national religious ethnic or tribal identities who accept democracy or democrats who renounce identity as a kind of divisive prejudice Natan Sharansky building on his personal experience as a dissident argues that valueless cosmopolitanism even in democracies is dangerous Better to have hostile identities framed by democracy than democrats indifferent to identity In a vigorous insightful challenge to the left and right alike Natan Sharansky as he has proved repeatedly is at the leading edge of the issues that frame our times

The World Missionary Conference, Edinburgh 1910 Brian Stanley, 2009-03-27 Studies in the History of Christian Missions R E Frykenberg and Brian Stanley series editors The World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910 has come down in history as a unique event in the history of the Protestant missionary movement Brian Stanley's book gives us a full and comprehensive account of the conference doing so from the perspective of developments in the hundred years since the conference His study should serve not only as a work of history but also as a work of theological reflection about mission as an ongoing international movement I welcome this book as an important resource in the church's self understanding and in its engagement with the world Lamin Sanneh Yale University Edinburgh 1910 laid the foundations of interdenominational understanding for the ecumenical movement of the twentieth century With impeccable scholarship Brian Stanley has written a thorough and revealing analysis of this epoch making conference David Bebbington University of Stirling An accomplished study revealing Stanley's deep scholarship and wide knowledge of the modern missionary movement This book will surely become both a missionary and an ecumenical classic David M Thompson Fitzwilliam College Cambridge This long awaited book is the definitive history of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 Stanley's thorough scholarship and elegant prose bring the conference to life and make a case for its enduring importance to the history of world Christianity Scholars of missions ecumenism world religions education and Christian internationalism will find this superb study essential for their work Dana L Robert Boston University School of Theology

Humanism and Religion Jens Zimmermann, 2012-01-26 The question of who we are and what vision of humanity we assume in Western culture lies at the heart of hotly debated questions on the role of religion in education politics and culture in general The need for recovering a greater purpose for social practices is indicated for example by the rapidly increasing number of publications on the demise of higher education lamenting the fragmentation of knowledge and university culture's surrender to market driven pragmatism The West's cultural rootlessness and lack of cultural identity are also revealed by the failure of multiculturalism to integrate religiously vibrant immigrant cultures A main cause of the West's cultural malaise is the long standing separation of reason and faith Jens Zimmermann suggests that the West can rearticulate its identity and renew its cultural purpose by recovering the humanistic ethos that originally shaped Western culture In tracing the religious roots of humanism from patristic theology through the Renaissance into modern philosophy we find that humanism was originally based on the correlation of reason and faith In this book the author combines humanism religion and hermeneutic philosophy to re imagine humanism for our current cultural and intellectual climate The hope of this recovery is for humanism to become what Charles Taylor has called a social imaginary an internalized vision of what it means to be human This vision will encourage once again the correlation of reason and faith in order to overcome current cultural impasses such as those posed for example by religious and secularist fundamentalisms Encountering Islam Richard Sudworth,2017-03-31 What do Christian Churches say Islam is What does the Church of England say Islam is And in the end what space is there for genuine engagement with Islam Richard Sudworth s unique study takes as its cue the question of political theology and brings this burgeoning area of debate into dialogue with Christian Muslim relations and Anglican ecclesiology The vexed subject of Christian Muslim Relations provides the presenting arena to explore what political theologies enable the Church of England to engage with the diverse public square of the twenty first century Each chapter concludes with an Anecdotes from the Field section setting themes from the chapter in the context of Richard Sudworth s own ministry within a Muslim majority parish

Christianity and Human Rights Reconsidered Sarah Shortall,Daniel Steinmetz-Jenkins,2020-09-24 This is the first global examination of the historical relationship between Christianity and human rights in the twentieth century Leading historians anthropologists political theorists legal scholars and scholars of religion develop fresh approaches to issues such as human dignity personalism religious freedom the role of ecumenical and transatlantic networks and the relationship between Christian and liberal rights theories In doing so they move well beyond the temporal and geographical limits of the existing scholarship exploring the connection between Christianity and human rights not only in Europe and the United States but also in Africa Latin America and China They offer alternative chronologies and bring to light overlooked aspects of this history including the role of race gender decolonization and interreligious dialogue Above all these essays foreground the complicated relationship between global rights discourses whether Christian liberal or otherwise and the local contexts in which they are developed and implemented The Pontificate of Benedict XVI William G. Rusch,2009-04-03 Religion beliefs

Catholic Bioethics for a New Millennium Anthony Fisher,2011-11-17 Can the Hippocratic and Judeo Christian traditions be synthesized with contemporary thought about practical reason virtue and community to provide real life answers to the dilemmas of healthcare today Bishop Anthony Fisher discusses conscience relationships and law in relation to the modern day controversies surrounding stem cell research abortion transplants artificial feeding and euthanasia using case studies to offer insight and illumination What emerges is a reason based bioethics for the twenty first century a bioethics that treats faith and reason with equal seriousness that shows the relevance of ancient wisdom to the complexities of modern healthcare scenarios and that offers new suggestions for social policy and regulation Philosophical argument is complemented by Catholic theology and analysis of social and biomedical trends to make this an auspicious example of a new generation of Catholic bioethical writing which has relevance for people of all faiths and none Censorial Sensitivities András Sajó,2007 This book addresses the conflict between free speech and religion Religious authorities have long tried to discipline free speech when it runs counter to religious teachings or dogmas The reaction to the cartoons about the prophet Muhammad published in the Danish Jyllands Posten demonstrated the resonance of the accusation of blasphemy inside Islam The conflict is not however limited to Islam The Catholic Church and various Protestant churches have strongly expressed their hostility toward various books plays and films that they consider collective defamation There is an increasing concern about the need to protect religious sensitivities against offensive speech in particular where such speech affects vulnerable minorities and collective identities based on religious affiliation The thought provoking essays in this book are a welcome contribution to the current debate on how to deal with the clash between free speech and religion in a world where a growing number of people are committed in a fundamental way to religion in everyday life Why Europe Fears Its

Neighbors Fabrizio Tassinari, 2009-09-03 Working from a unique viewpoint this volume demonstrates how the European Union's fear of its neighbors reflects Europe's identity crisis and challenges its survival Taking a novel approach to the current situation in Europe foreign policy analyst Fabrizio Tassinari transforms external policy concerns about Europe's neighborhood into questions about Europe's internal future His contention that the situation on Europe's periphery is an unforgiving mirror of its identity crisis institutional paralysis ineffectual foreign policy and morbid fear of migrants and multiculturalism Looking at each of the countries and regions surrounding Europe from Russia and Turkey to the Western Balkans and North Africa Tassinari unravels the challenges facing the EU weighs the record of its policies and explains how both can be traced back to Europe's inherent insecurity Turning conventional wisdom on its head he argues that gradual and diversified forms of integration with its many neighbors is Europe's best alternative to a progressive but inexorable fragmentation of the EU The ability to meet this challenge will not only test Europe's unfulfilled global aspirations it will be crucial to its very survival Understanding Europe (The Works of Christopher Dawson) Christopher Dawson, 2009 In a time of remarkable but selective amnesia in the West reflected perhaps most dramatically in the denial of the Christian roots of Europe in the first drafts of the European constitution Understanding Europe is as relevant today as it was on its first appearance in 1952 Christopher Dawson wrote of the uneasiness that characterized twentieth century Western civilization in the aftermath of two disastrous global conflicts and the attempt to build a new secular civilization on impersonal economic forces He desired a unified Europe but one unified by a common Christian religion Recognizing the emphasis on economic utility and mass productivity in European culture Dawson argued that a renewed study of Christian faith and culture was essential in order to recover the deeper sense of European unity In Understanding Europe Dawson expresses a desire for Europe to rediscover and renew its foundational Christian sources in order to recover a deeper sense of integrity This edition includes an introduction by George Weigel Catholic Social Teaching and Pope Benedict XVI Charles E. Curran, 2014-01-15 Celebrated moral theologian Charles E. Curran examines and critiques Pope Benedict XVI's contribution to Catholic social teaching in this Georgetown Digital Short available exclusively in this concise digital format In his eight year pontificate 2005 13 Pope Benedict XVI wrote two encyclicals that are significant for Catholic social teaching Deus caritas est God Is Love in 2005 and Caritas in veritate Charity In Truth in 2009 Curran analyzes and compares the teaching proposed in these two encyclicals given that these two documents reflect differing approaches He explores presuppositions found in Caritas in veritate within the tradition of Catholic social teaching and discusses the theological ethical and ecclesial methodologies of the encyclical Examining the substance and content of Caritas in veritate and its relationship to Catholic social teaching Curran focuses on its approach to the person political and civil society and specific issues and topics This is the first exploration of Pope Benedict XVI s impact on Catholic social teaching Georgetown Digital Shorts longer than an article shorter than a book deliver timely works of peer reviewed scholarship in a fast paced agile environment They present new ideas and original texts that are easily and widely available to students scholars libraries and general readers

Politics and the Religious Imagination John H.A. Dyck, Paul S. Rowe, Jens Zimmermann, 2010-06-10 Politics and the Religious Imagination is the product of a group of interdisciplinary scholars each analyzing the connections between religious narratives and the construction of regional and global politics combining a set of theoretical and philosophic insights with several case studies that represent varied geographies and religious customs The past decade has seen increasing interest in the links between religion and politics and this edited volume seeks to take religion seriously as a motivator of action Few studies have attempted to bring together the multi disciplinary work in this burgeoning field of study and this work takes a global perspective using a variety of contexts including East West relations to analyze the following key themes the constructive and destructive hermeneutics of religious stories the relevance and importance of religion as a dominant political narrative the rise of new stories among groups as agents of change the way that religious narratives help to define and constrain the Other the manipulation of religious stories for political benefit This work argues that it is insufficient to judge the relationship of religion and politics through mere institutional or quantitative lenses and this collection proves that while this promise of the narrative part of the social imaginary has been recognized in political theory to a certain extent its influence in the realm of empirical political science has yet to be fully considered Combining the work of a wide range of experts this collection will be of great interests to scholars of politics philosophy religious studies and the literary influence of religion
