Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1955 Terence Rattigan Peter Wolfe, 2019-07-08 The theatrical world Terence Rattigan built is vital but disturbing and uniquely constructed His sentences are not impacted or fractured and his plots usually obey a linear time sequence Yet his realism isn't all that real Though sentence by sentence his dialogue sounds natural the creative pulse behind it is idiosyncratic and self-lacerating As a gay man writing at a time when homosexuality was a felony in the UK Rattigan wrote at a skewed angle to his culture making his plays at times easy to follow

but hard to fathom Terence Rattigan The Playwright as Battlefield examines the ways in which Rattigan's works turn their audiences into participants encouraging intellectual independence and freeing them to make decisions for themselves as to the deeper meanings of the works The playwright's omission of outright explanations deepens the audience's emotional commitment to the outcomes of the performance and walks a fine line between restraint and invention His works convey subtly and deceptively the cold obstinacy that thwarts our everyday actions in a way which that is felt viscerally by the audience This book engages works from throughout Rattigan's early and late career to examine the unique methods by which the playwright conveys meaning to various audiences within an ever changing sociocultural context The Passing Game Warren Hoffman, 2008-11-03 Tony Kushner's award winning epic play Angels in America was remarkable not only for its sensitive engagement of Jewish American and gay culture but also for bringing these themes to a mainstream audience While the play represented a watershed in American theater and culture it belies a hundred years of previous attention to queer Jewish identity in twentieth century American literature drama and film In The Passing Game Warren Hoffman sheds light on this long history taking up both Yiddish and English narratives that explore the tensions among Jewish identity queer sexuality performance and American citizenship With fresh insight Hoffman examines the 1907 Yiddish play God of Vengeance by Sholem Asch the cross dressing films of Yiddish actress Molly Picon and several short stories by Isaac Bashevis Singer He also analyzes the English language novels The Rise of David Levinsky Abraham Cahan Wasteland Jo Sinclair and Portnoy's Complaint Phillip Roth Hoffman highlights the ways in which the characters in these canonical texts attempt to pass as white straight and American in the early and mid twentieth century This pioneering work is a welcome contribution to the study of Jewish American literature and culture Mastering Writing at Greater Depth Adam Bushnell, Angela Gill, David Waugh, Rob Smith, 2023-02-09 This book provides teachers with support guidance background theory examples and practical advice for the teaching of writing at greater depth Agatha Christie on Screen Mark Aldridge, 2016-10-21 This book is a comprehensive exploration of 90 years of film and television adaptations of the world's best selling novelist's work Drawing on extensive archival material it offers new information regarding both the well known and forgotten screen adaptations of Agatha Christie's stories including unmade and rare adaptations some of which have been unseen for more than half a century This history offers intriguing insights into the discussions and debates that surrounded many of these screen projects something that is brought to life through previously unpublished correspondence from Christie herself and a new wide ranging interview with her grandson Mathew Prichard Agatha Christie on Screen takes the reader on a journey from little known silent film adaptations through to famous screen productions including 1974's Murder on the Orient Express as well as the television series of the Poirot and Miss Marple stories and most recently the BBC's acclaimed version of And Then There Were None Women of Mystery Martha Hailey DuBose, 2000-12-11 In this remarkable book Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries

Unlike other works on the subject Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications with a few biographical details DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work anecdotes contemporary reviews and opinions and some of the women's own comments She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers Christie Sayers Marsh Allingham and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today focused on the women who have become legends of the genre And though she laments so many mysteries so little time she makes a good effort mentioning some of the best of the rest When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players she relates them to their times their families their personal situations and above all to their books She subtly points out that Sayers whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous created in Lord Peter the ideal lover one who is all that a woman desires and needs DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter Wimsey to a virtual actuality Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels The biographies of these women are as engrossing as the stories they wrote and Martha DuBose has shined a different intimate and intriguing light on them their works and the lives that informed those works This book is so full of treasure it's hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce I love a mystery Some of the treats inside In the Beginning The Mothers of Detection Anna Katherine Green Mary Roberts Rinehart A Golden Era The Genteel Puzzlers Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers Ngaio Marsh Margery Allingham Josephine Tey Modern Motives Mysteries of the Murderous Mind Patricia Highsmith P D James Ruth Rendell Mary Higgins Clark Sue Grafton and more
