Reading William Gilmore Simms Todd Hagstette, 2017-08-10 Engaging approaches to the vast output of South Carolina's premier man of letters William Gilmore Simms was the best known and certainly the most accomplished writer of the mid nineteenth century South His literary ascent began early with his first book being published when he was nineteen years old and his reputation as a literary genius secured before he turned thirty Over a career that spanned nearly forty five years he established himself as the American South's premier man of letters an accomplished poet novelist short fiction writer essayist historian dramatist cultural journalist biographer and editor In Reading William Gilmore Simms Todd Hagstette has created an anthology of critical introductions to Simms's major publications including those recently brought back into print by the University of South Carolina Press offering the first ever primer compendium of the author's vast output Simms was a Renaissance man of American letters lauded in his time by both popular audiences and literary icons alike Yet the author's extensive output which includes nearly eighty published volumes can be a barrier to his study To create a gateway to reading and studying Simms Hagstette has assembled thirty eight essays by twenty four scholars to review fifty five Simms works Addressing all the author's major works the essays provide introductory information and scholarly analysis of the most crucial features of Simms's literary achievement Arranged alphabetically by title for easy access the book also features a topical index for more targeted inquiry into Simms's canon Detailing the great variety and astonishing consistency of Simms's thought throughout his long career as well as examining his posthumous reconsideration Reading William Gilmore Simms bridges the author's genius and readers growing curiosity The only work of its kind this book provides an essential passport to the far flung worlds of Simms's fecund imagination

The Changing Space Economy of

City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot, 2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book's focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region's Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant placed based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South     Artefacts of Writing

Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO's ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Es'kia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature's place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today     The Concise Oxford Companion to American Literature

James D. Hart, Wendy Martin, Danielle Hinrichs, 2021-01-21 For nearly half a century James D Hart's Oxford Companion to American Literature has offered a matchless guided tour through American literary culture both past and present with brief biographies of important authors descriptions of important literary movements and a wealth of information on other aspects of American literary life and history from the Colonial period to the present day In this second edition of the

Concise version Wendy Martin and Danielle Hinrichs bring the work up to date to more fully reflect the diversity of the subject Their priorities have been foremost to fully represent the impact of writers of color and women writers on the field of American literature and to increase the usefulness of the work to students of literary theory To this end over 230 new entries have been added including many that cover women authors Native American African American Asian American Latino a and other contemporary ethnic literatures LGBT trans and queer studies and recent literary movements and evolving areas of contemporary relevance such as eco criticism disability studies whiteness studies male masculinity studies and diaspora studies

The Strategic Repositioning of Arts, Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century George Mugovhani, Owen Seda, 2018-06-11 The post millennium world has been experiencing several recognisable historical milestones with regard to arts culture and heritage One of these has been the resuscitation and revival of creative elements of the arts culture and heritage of previously marginalised or disadvantaged communities around the world Until recently there had been scant regard and skewed allocation of resources for these but lately attempts have been made to promote and sustain them in order to enable the socio economic aspirations of a multicultural society The contributions brought together here are the product of papers that were presented during a conference on Strategic Repositioning of Arts Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century They cover a broad spectrum of subjects such as indigeneity music song and identity politics national reconciliation education product development and national development
