exchange student at Nanjing University in 1981 John Pomfret was one of the first American students to be admitted to China after the communist revolution Twenty years later he returned and immersed himself again in the remarkable lie stories of his former classmates In Chinese Lessons he tells of Old Wu whose father was killed during the Cultural Revolution for the crime of being an intellectual Book Idiot Zhou who labored in the fields for years rather than agree to a Party arranged marriage and Little Guan who was forced to publicly denounce her father The result is an illuminating report on China s transition from near feudal communism to First World capitalism and a moving portrait of its extraordinary people Pomfret has produced a sobering work of authenticity and insight that will endure as a classic assessment of China s transformative recent decades Los Angeles Times A compelling account of China s evolution The communist country s emergence from isolation and impoverishment has been told before but rarely in such intimate and occasionally heartening detail USA Today

Brief Biographies of Badass Bitches Lisa Lee Curtis,2023-05-02 Excluded from so many stories that highlight barely adequate men throughout history are the women who were accomplishing amazing things with little to none of the credit The women that we ve discounted as merely a pretty face Or who were painted as a villain in a story when it s likely that wasn t even remotely the case Or the women we ve disregarded altogether These badass bitches deserve to have their stories told their real stories not just the gratuitous headlines or justifications for their omission And we deserve the opportunity to get to know them better Bond Plays: 7 Edward Bond,2013-12-10 The latest collection of plays by one of Europe s most important playwrights THE CRIME OF THE TWENTY FIRST CENTURY The past has been abolished and geography even the sky is changed A woman lives in a vast desert of white rubble A tiny group of people comes seeking a hiding place and is exposed to the deepest questions of human existence OLLY S PRISON an ordinary city flat Evening A man tries to talk to his daughter She will not answer Slowly their world turns to tragedy and a search begins that lasts for years COFFEE A young man alone in a room A stranger enters Together they journey into a dark forest When the men return to the daylight world they are involved in a trivial incident It is hardly more than a gesture yet it is something that once happened and in its triviality captures the history of our century and confronts us with the deepest questions about ourselves A great playwright many particularly in continental Europe would say the greatest living English playwright Independent A play by one of Britain s greatest playwrights is an event TES An Epoch of Miracles ,2014-06-23 Mr Allan Burns I am here to tell you an example the example of the Hunchbacks So said Paulino Yam traditionalist and storyteller to Allan Burns anthropologist and linguist as he began one story that found its way into this book Paulino Yam was just one of several master storytellers from the Yucat n Peninsula of Mexico from whom Burns learned not only the Mayan language but also the style and performance of myths stories riddles prayers and other forms of speech of their people The result is An Epoch of Miracles a wonderfully readable yet thoroughly scholarly set of translations from the oral literature of the Yucatec Maya an important New World tradition never before systematically described An Epoch of Miracles brings us over thirty five long narratives of things large small strange and regular and as many delightful short pieces such as bird lore riddles and definitions of anteaters rainbows and other commonplaces of the Mayan world Here are profound narratives of the Feathered Serpent the mighty Rain God Chac and his helpers and the mysterious cult of the Speaking Cross But because these are modern Petroleum Age Maya here too are a discussion with Cuba s Fidel Castro and a greeting to former president Richard Nixon All pieces are translated ethnopoetically examples of several genres are presented bilingually An especially valuable feature is the indication of performance style such as pauses and voice quality given with each piece

Hate Speech against Women Online Louise Richardson-Self,2021-10-01 Why are women so frequently targeted with hate speech online and what can we do about it Psychological explanations for the problem of woman hating overlook important features of our social world that encourage latent feelings of hostility toward women even despite our consciously held ideals of equality Louise Richardson Self investigates the woman hostile norms of the English speaking internet the rules of engagement in these social spaces and the narratives we tell ourselves about who gets to inhabit such spaces It examines the dominant imaginings images impressions stereotypes and ideas of women that are shared in acts of hate speech highlighting their emotional stickiness But offering strategies through which we may reimagine our norms of online engagement the stories that justify those norms and the logic that makes sense of it all this book shows how we can create alternative visions of what it means to take up online space as a woman and to ensure that women are seen as entitled to be there By exploring aspects of social imaginaries theory and applying it to the problem of hate speech against women online this book illuminates why woman hating has become such a prominent feature of this environment and how we can make these spaces safer for women
