Discussion Guide #2

Encourage critical thinking and support your students' literacy development by asking questions during reading. Here are some questions you can ask your readers to engage them in a discussion.

Chapters: A Tour of the Galaxy – Time to Think

COMPREHENSION:

- Name three reasons Via's four-week visit with Grans was the best time of her life.
- Describe Via's response when she first sees August after being away for four weeks.
- What is Via's favorite part about high school?
- What changes between Via and her two best friends when they start high school?
- On the morning of Halloween, Via and her mom stay home together. Why? How does Via feel about their time together?
- How does Via convince August to go back to school after Halloween?
- Why does Miranda call August?

ANALYSIS:

- Via describes August as "the Sun." What does she mean by this?
- Via gives a detailed description of August's face. Why do you think the author waited until this point in the book to give this description?
- Why do you think Via is angry that August cuts off his Patawan braid? What does this reveal about Via's character?

PERSONAL CONNECTION:

- When Via gets to high school, her relationship with her best friends changes. Describe a time when one of your friendships changed. How did you feel, and why?

Nancy Akhavan

Wonder Discussion Guide Sixth Grade:

Accelerated Language Learning (ALL) with the Lit Six (grades 6-8) Nancy Akhavan, 2023-07-13 It's a new day! We've learned language acquisition in school isn't linear and rote but rather dynamic, meaningful, and collaborative. Multilingual learners thrive through the production of oral and written language. Dr. Nancy Akhavan: Are you ready to teach multilingual learners with instruction that reflects current English Language Development (ELD) standards? Language acquisition expert Dr. Nancy Akhavan provides a flexible resource that delivers what students need most: experiences that teach language skills through intellectually engaging texts, tasks, and lively communication with peers. This dynamic curriculum offers five units based on a writing performance task that aligns to commonly taught genres and key reading skills. The research-backed instructional framework maximizes students' participation through a series of listening, speaking, and writing activities. Book Review 1: Nancy Akhavan has brought together a set of carefully designed lessons that address the specific language acquisition needs of English Language Learners. Each 30-minute lesson is designed to help multilingual learners acquire English through content which supports lesson planning and delivery. Dr. Akhavan's work ensures success by demystifying the process of teaching and learning. Cinnamon Scheufele, Executive Director, Curriculum and Instruction, Lindsay Unified School District, Lindsay, CA. Book Review 2: As a teacher educator, this curriculum is exactly what I wished I had to give my early career teachers who needed structure, scaffolding, and support in fine-tuning their instruction. The unit design, with the foundations, paves the way, leads the way, and assesses, serves as the foundation upon which each lesson rests. The lessons are laser-focused to standards and learning outcomes, and the assessment perfectly aligns. I enthusiastically support this curriculum, which has the potential to promote significant changes in the literacy trajectories for students and districts. Molly Ness, VP Academic Content Learning, Ally. Resources in Education, 2001. Group Discussion Guide, 1939. Lessons in Disability Jacob Stratman, 2015-11-16 Disability is a growing reality. According to the United States Census Bureau, approximately 57 million people, 19 percent of the population, had a disability in 2010, more than half being reported as severe. Interest in disability studies is also growing in literature, film, art, politics, and religion. Exploring the intersection between disability and young adult literature, this collection of new essays fills a gap in scholarship between teachers and YAL scholars. The contributors offer textual analysis, best practices, and numerous examples that enable teachers to expose students to dynamic characters who both reflect and contrast with the reader's reality. Land, Water, and Sky for Grades 3-5 Jennifer E. Lawson, 2022-12-09 Land, Water, and Sky from Hands On Science: An Inquiry Approach completely aligns with BC's New Curriculum for science. classroom tested reading activities that will benefit all students in grades 6-12 including gifted, special education and ELL students. Incorporating years of success in helping struggling secondary students become expert readers, she provides both a jargon-free overview of critical research and activities that every teacher can use to improve reading comprehension and content retention. Student examples and sample modifications show teachers how reading activities can be used in content areas ranging from math and science to social studies and English and more. Each chapter contains:

- A skills overview
- Detailed descriptions of relevant subskills
- Skill building activities
- An assessment rubric
- Examples of student work
- Blank reproducibles of every activity

Learn how to use double entry journals, text coding, bookmarking, and questioning strategies to help students become more proficient readers. Based on IRA and NCTE standards, these activities foster independence, self-reflection, and motivation in all students.

Reading in the Wild Donalyn Miller, 2013-11-04

In Reading in the Wild, reading expert Donalyn Miller continues the conversation that began in her bestselling book The Book Whisperer. While The Book Whisperer revealed the secrets of getting students to love reading, Reading in the Wild, written with reading teacher Susan Kelley, describes how to truly instill lifelong wild reading habits in our students. Based in part on survey responses from adult readers as well as students, Reading in the Wild offers solid advice and strategies on how to develop, encourage, and assess five key reading habits that cultivate a lifelong love of reading. Also included are strategies, lesson plans, management tools, and comprehensive lists of recommended books. Copublished with Editorial Projects in Education, publisher of Education Week and Teacher magazine, Reading in the Wild is packed with ideas for helping students build capacity for a lifetime of wild reading. When the thrill of choice reading starts to fade, it's time to grab Reading in the Wild. This treasure trove of resources and management techniques will enhance and improve existing classroom systems and structures.

Cris Tovani, secondary teacher, Cherry Creek School District, Colorado, consultant and author of Do I Really Have to Teach Reading? With Reading in the Wild, Donalyn Miller gives educators another important book. She reminds us that creating lifelong readers goes far beyond the first step of putting good books into kids' hands.

Franki Sibberson, third grade teacher, Dublin City Schools, Dublin, Ohio, and author of Beyond Leveled Books. Reading in the Wild, along with the now legendary The Book Whisperer, constitutes the complete guide to creating a stimulating literature program that also gets students excited about pleasure reading, the kind of reading that best prepares students for understanding demanding academic texts. In other words, Donalyn Miller has solved one of the central problems in language education.
