READING COMPREHENSION

1. The first scene of the story depicts the question: "How can I stand in when you were born to stand out?" What do you think this means? Can you give an example?
2. Where was the first scene of the story set? August in the town of the school?
3. Compare and contrast the characters of Charlotte and Jack. What is a simile about them? What is a metaphor?
4. How does August's father feel about his son's decision to attend school? How do you know that? Find evidence from the text to prove this.
5. If you could give August one piece of advice about starting school, what would it be?

TAKE YOUR PICK

Create a visual dictionary of the Star Wars characters and references in the book

Create the classroom scene from the "Wonder" chapter. You could use a storyboard, poster, or online tool like Microsoft

Can you think of the names of these characters in your class who could be at the "Wonder" school? How are their names related? List these names and their reasons.

PART ONE

"ORDINARY" - "FIRST DAY JITTERS"

KEEP THE QUESTIONS

The only reason that August is in the school is because he is a boy who is different. He is a boy who is different. He is a boy who is different.

Wonder

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Wonder is about a boy who spends his whole life trying to fit in, but instead he always stands out. Tell your group what a boy who is different is or you feel different from everybody else.
2. What does the phrase "look to the daughter" mean? Why did August's dad describe looking to his daughter to feel this way?
3. If you could only see one word to describe your first impressions of Charlotte, what word, what would they be?
4. August (in the narrative) has mentioned the names of three different people now. Why do you think he describes the school? What does this tell us about the way he feels himself and how around others he is around off?

PART ONE

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In September, August asks August's questions about the school. He then asks them questions for the first time. What does this action tell you about the kind of person that August is? (August is a person)
2. August says "I suddenly realized that I was going to like school. Not really what, what do you think August means by that?"
3. August has experienced someone who he thought was a friend doing something that was really weird. What would be your advice to August?
4. Why was Halloween August's favorite holiday? What is your favorite holiday? Why?

Wonder

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. He describes his relationship with the girls in the part of the novel. He says "I don't know why the world is so weird. I don't know why the world is so weird. I don't know why the world is so weird. Why was this so important to me?"
2. When August goes to school and comes home from school on Halloween, he changes from this. He says August's Mom. What is the difference between the two? Why does he go to school?
3. When the girls and the boys go to a new group of friends, the girls and the boys make new friends, who are not as good as the girls and the boys. What is the difference between the two? Why does he go to school?
4. He gives August advice about what to do about school and the kids being mean. Do you think it was the right advice? What advice would you have given August?

PART TWO, THREE AND FOUR

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Summer ending with August at his home has become a big deal amongst the students at his home. Do you think this is a big deal? Why or why not?
2. Do you think Summer was right to give back the idea of "Wonder" when he asked what was wrong? How did August feel about the idea of "Wonder" when he asked what was wrong? Why or why not? (August is a person)
3. Jack chose to keep the reason why he punched August from Principal Tushman. Do you think he should have told on Jack? What would have happened if he did? Would you have told on him?
4. The character of Charlotte is interesting because she is similar to August, but not really. Is there a difference between being friends and being a friend? (August is a person)
