Wiser Getting Beyond Groupthink To Make Groups Smarter:

Wiser Cass R. Sunstein, Reid Hastie, 2015 We've all been involved in group decisions and they're hard. And they often turn out badly. Why? Many blame bad decisions on groupthink without a clear idea of what that term really means. Now Nudge coauthor Cass Sunstein and leading decision-making scholar Reid Hastie shed light on the specifics of why and how group decisions go wrong and offer tactics and lessons to help leaders avoid the pitfalls and reach better outcomes. Collective Efficacy Jenni Donohoo, 2016-10-21 Improve student outcomes with collective teacher efficacy. If educators' realities are filtered through the belief that they can do very little to influence student achievement, then it is likely these beliefs will manifest in their practice. The solution: Collective efficacy (CE), the belief that through collective actions educators can influence student outcomes and increase achievement. Educators with high efficacy show greater effort and persistence, willingness to try new teaching approaches, and attend more closely to struggling students' needs. This book presents practical strategies and tools for increasing student achievement by sharing Rationale and sources for establishing CE. Conditions and leadership practices for CE to flourish. Professional learning structures, protocols.

What Is a Human? James Paul Gee, 2020-09-17 In a sweeping synthesis of new research in a number of different disciplines, this book argues that we humans are not who we think we are. As he explores the interconnections between cutting-edge work in bioanthropology, evolutionary biology, neuroscience, human language, and learning, and beyond, James Paul Gee advances also a personal philosophy of language, learning, and culture informed by his decades of work across linguistics and the social sciences. Gee argues that our schools, institutions, legal systems, and societies are designed for creatures that do not exist, thus resulting in multiple interacting crises, such as climate change, failing institutions, and the rise of nationalist nationalism. As Gee constructs an understanding of the human that takes into account our social, collective, and historical nature as established by recent research, he inspires readers to reflect for themselves on the very question of who we are. A key consideration for anyone interested in society, government, schools, health, activism, culture, and diversity, or even just survival.

Judicial Character in Hard Times Tomasz Widiak, 2025-03-12 This insightful book analyses how judges' intellectual traits and personalities impact the rule of law and the proper performance of judicial roles. Focusing on times of crisis, the book discusses manifestations of judicial character under internal and external pressures: social unrest and attacks on judges when their status, independence, and impartiality are under strain.

Disputed Decisions of World War II Mark Thompson, 2020-01-17 A former Harvard professor of decision science and game theory draws on those disciplines in this review of controversial strategic and tactical decisions of World War II Allied leaders, although outstanding in many ways, sometimes botched. What now is termed meta-decision making, or deciding how to decide. Operation Jubilee, a single division raid on Dieppe, France, in August 1942, for example, illustrated the pitfalls of groupthink. In the Allied invasion of North Africa, three months later, American and British leaders fell victim to the planning fallacy, having unrealistically rosy expectations of an easy victory In Sicily in the summer of 1943 they violated the millennia old principle of command unity now re endorsed and elaborated on by modern theorists Had Allied strategists understood the game theory of bluffing in January 1944 they might well not have landed two plus divisions at Anzio in Italy

What Works Iris Bohnet, 2016-03-08 Gender equality is a moral and a business imperative But unconscious bias holds us back and de biasing minds has proven to be difficult and expensive Behavioral design offers a new solution Iris Bohnet shows that by de biasing organizations instead of individuals we can make smart changes that have big impacts often at low cost and high speed

Expertisation and Democracy in Europe Magdalena Góra, Cathrine Holst, Marta Warat, 2017-11-27 Expertisation and Democracy in Europe provides a much needed account of the role and re organisation of expertise and expert knowledge in Europe and the European Union in a broad range of policy spheres contributing to the debate triggered by the recent crises It brings novel perspectives to debates on technocracy and our understanding of the relations between knowledge experts and democracy The book explores and assesses new and old linkages between knowledge expertise and democracy and expands and deepens the current debates by addressing questions such as What is the role of expertise in Europe How is knowledge of different kinds embedded in and decisive for democratic practice in contemporary democracies How are we to assess recent transformations of the expert citizens and government civil society relationships from the perspective of democracy and which paths are viable in the years to come Finally the book engages with and gives flesh to the notion of expertisation not only as a broad political and societal diagnosis but also as a multidimensional and deeply contested process that enfold in concrete practices and institutional settings This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of European studies European and European Union politics democracy public policy international relations sociology gender studies and media studies

Why We Fight Christopher Blattman, 2023-04-18 Why We Fight reflects Blattman's expertise in economics political science and history Blattman is a great storyteller with important insights for us all Richard H Thaler winner of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences and coauthor of Nudge Engaging and profound this deeply searching book explains the true origins of warfare and it illustrates the ways that despite some contrary appearances human beings are capable of great goodness Nicholas A Christakis author of Blueprint The Evolutionary Origins of a Good Society Why did Russia attack Ukraine Will China invade Taiwan and launch WWII Why has the number of civil wars reached their highest level in decades Why are so many cities in the Americas plagued with violence And finally what can any of us do about it It feels like we re surrounded by violence Each conflict seems unique and insoluble With a reason for every war and a war for every reason what hope is there for peace Fortunately it s simpler than that Why We Fight boils down decades of economics political science psychology and real world interventions giving us some counterintuitive answers to the question of war The first is that most of the time we don t fight Around the world there are millions of hostile rivalries yet only a fraction erupt into violence Most enemies loathe one another in peace The reason is simple war is too costly to fight It s the worst way to settle our differences In those rare instances when fighting ensues that means we have to ask ourselves What kept rivals from the normal grudging compromise The answer is always the same It s because a society or its leaders ignored those costs of war or were willing to pay them Why We Fight shows that there are just five ways this happens From warring states to street gangs ethnic groups and religious sects to political factions Christopher Blattman shows that there are five reasons why violent conflict occasionally wins over compromise Through Blattman s time studying Medell n Chicago Liberia Northern Ireland and more we learn the common logics driving vainglorious monarchs dictators mobs pilots football hooligans ancient peoples and fanatics Why We Fight shows that war isn t a series of errors accidents and emotions gone awry There are underlying strategic ideological and institutional forces that are too often overlooked So how to get to peace Blattman shows that societies are surprisingly good at interrupting and ending violence when they want to even gangs do it The best peacemakers tackle the five reasons shifting incentives away from violence and getting rivals back to dealmaking And they do so through tinkering not transformation Realistic and optimistic this is a book that lends new meaning to the adage Give peace a chance

The Evaluators' Eye Gemma Derrick, 2018-02-08 This book offers an empirical analysis of how academic peer review panels mediate the traditionally non academic criterion of societal impact The UK's 2014 Research Excellence Framework REF2014 for the first time included an Impact criterion that considered how research had influenced society beyond academia Using a series of interviews with REF2014 Main Panel A evaluators the book explores how a dominant definition of Impact was constructed within panels and how this led to the development of strategies around valuing it as an ambiguous object By doing so Derrick brings a unique perspective to Impact that is currently overlooked in the dominant Impact evaluation discourse Through examining the evaluation procedure as a dynamic process it is argued that the best models strategies and insights for Impact evaluation are those constructed in practice within peer review groups By exploring the legitimacy of peer review as a tool to assess the societal impact of research Derrick states that the future for Impact evaluation is not to seek alternative tools where peer review seemingly fails but instead to highlight ways in which peer review panels can work smarter The book will be essential reading for students academics and policy makers working in Education as well as researchers interested in peer review processes and the research evaluation frameworks and audit exercises globally

Farsighted Steven Johnson, 2018-09-04 The hardest choices are also the most consequential So why do we know so little about how to get them right Big life altering decisions matter so much more than the decisions we make every day and they're also the most difficult where to live whom to marry what to believe whether to start a company how to end a war There's no one size fits all approach for addressing these kinds of conundrums Steven Johnson's classic Where Good Ideas Come From inspired creative people all over the world with new ways of thinking about innovation In Farsighted he uncovers powerful tools for honing the important skill of complex decision making While you can't model a once in a lifetime choice you can model the deliberative tactics of expert decision makers These experts aren't just the master strategists running major companies or negotiating high level diplomacy They're the novelists who draw out the complexity of their characters inner lives the city officials who secure long term water supplies and the scientists who reckon with future challenges most of us haven't even imagined The smartest decision makers don't go with their guts Their success relies on having a future oriented approach and the ability to consider all their options in a creative productive way Through compelling stories that reveal surprising insights Johnson explains how we can most effectively approach the choices that can chart the course of a life an organization or a civilization Farsighted will help you imagine your possible futures and appreciate the subtle intelligence of the choices that shaped our broader social history

Taming Uncertainty Ralph Hertwig, Timothy J. Pleskac, Thorsten Pachur, 2019-08-13 An examination of the cognitive tools that the mind uses to grapple with uncertainty in the real world How do humans navigate uncertainty continuously making near effortless decisions and predictions even under conditions of imperfect knowledge high complexity and extreme time pressure Taming Uncertainty argues that the human mind has developed tools to grapple with uncertainty Unlike much previous scholarship in psychology and economics this approach is rooted in what is known about what real minds can do Rather than reducing the human response to uncertainty to an act of juggling probabilities the authors propose that the human cognitive system has specific tools for dealing with different forms of uncertainty They identify three types of tools simple heuristics tools for information search and tools for harnessing the wisdom of others This set of strategies for making predictions inferences and decisions constitute the mind's adaptive toolbox The authors show how these three dimensions of human decision making are integrated and they argue that the toolbox its cognitive foundation and the environment are in constant flux and subject to developmental change They demonstrate that each cognitive tool can be analyzed through the concept of ecological rationality that is the fit between specific tools and specific environments Chapters deal with such specific instances of decision making as food choice architecture intertemporal choice financial uncertainty pedestrian navigation and adolescent behavior

Dealstorming Tim Sanders, 2016 The bestselling author of Love Is the Killer App unveils a methodology that sales managers and account executives can use to solve their team's toughest problems by combining the wisdom and creativity of everyone who has a stake in the sale B2B sales reps often find that their deals get stuck at a crucial point in the decision making process This book is Tim Sanders's guide to breaking through the resistance and getting the deal unstuck using a scalable repeatable process that he calls Dealstorming By including a diverse group of individuals in the organization who has a stake in the sale questioning existing assumptions and channeling the collective experience of the group sales teams can uncover creative solutions to closing otherwise impossible deals In Sanders s experience as a sales executive and consultant utilizing this process has led to a stunning 70 percent close ratio Take for example the way Alyssa Wichman of CareerBuilder used dealstorming to break a deadlock with staffing firm Allegis When she found out that Allegis was sponsoring a golf tournament to raise money for their favorite nonprofit she and her team sat down to come up with ways to meet the Allegis executives there going so far as to take over manning a beer cart on the course to speak with the execs on the ninth hole They were impressed she d gone to such lengths to have a few minutes with them so they agreed to a meeting the following week

Head, Heart, and Hands Listening in Coach Practice Kymberly Dakin-Neal, 2023-07-04 This book is an exploration of intentional listening as an essential skill for coaches It introduces the Head Heart and Hands Listening model as a vital tool to amplify effective listening in coaching practice Accessible and applicable the book explores the three listening modalities of Head Heart and Hands as active though largely unconscious lenses that inform the potency of our listening Dakin Neal argues that once coaches identify how they listen they can assist their clients in more targeted ways to positively impact their personal and professional lives Chapters are divided into the three listening modalities Head Heart and Hands and are filled with case studies stories reflective questions and exercises from the author s experience to help coaches strengthen their listening skills The book also includes a comprehensive listening assessment for coaches to use in practice This book is essential reading for coaches in practice and in training as well as organizational psychologists HR professionals and those working within corporations
