Thorns and Thistles Mark A. Escobar, 2013-05-29 With the onslaught of reflections and other biblical materials available online I have thought it best to welcome the challenge of putting into writing my homilies for each Sunday celebration Hence as a form of sharing these written homilies are meant to help us appreciate our sense of discipleship Like the seemingly endless footsteps of Christ in our lives the gift of the Spirit leads us to be united in one faith that captures the sense of transformation as implied in gospel reflections It is like a personal diary that attempts to lift the weight of Christ's message within the richness of human experiences As discipleship demands new perspectives and priorities these homilies articulate relationships in a variety of settings images and lifestyles of being in the world with others Though they help us understand the presence of God in our lives living with our own mystery and spirituality becomes like a dependable compass that is always there to guide us It is our road map as we walk by faith and not by sight alone Jesus' life teaching and ministry in a particular place time and culture have great significance to our journey as far as our mission is concerned He identifies himself with the people across cultures and he enters into solidarity with those in need Callings William Carl Placher, 2005 Lived Vocation Timothy K. Snyder, 2023-02-28 Lived Vocation is a collection of short reflective essays based on stories of contemporary work Together these reflections offer a window into the struggle to find meaning at work today These stories explore how we come to our work and jobs the hardship and toil of our working lives and the surprisingly small but powerful ways in which God may nonetheless be at work in these stories Author Tim Snyder asks What if vocation were less about being certain that you're following God's master plan for your life and more about noticing the presence of God as we tell our stories from everyday life The book challenges congregational leaders to listen to the stories of actual Christians putting their faith into action It offers ordinary Christians the assurance that they are not alone in their struggle to make sense of faith in everyday life The book provides congregational leaders with an accessible window into the lives of ordinary Christians trying to put their faith into action at work It helps such leaders empathize with the difficulties of integrating faith in everyday life today and inspires them to listen to and tell more stories of their own

Joy and Human Flourishing Miroslav Volf, Justin E. Crisp, 2015-11-01 Joy is crucial to human life and central to God's relationship to the world yet it is remarkably absent from contemporary theology and increasingly from our own lives This collection remedies this situation by considering the import of joy on human flourishing These essays written by experts in systematic and pastoral theology Christian ethics and biblical studies demonstrate the promise of joy to throw open new theological possibilities and cast fresh light on all dimensions of human life With contributions from Jurgen Moltmann N T Wright Marianne Meye Thompson Mary Clark Moschella Charles Mathewes and Miroslav Volf this volume puts joy at the heart of Christian faith and life exploring joy's biblical dogmatic ecclesiological and ethical dimensions in concert with close attention to the shifting tides of culture Convinced of the need to offer to the world a compelling Christian vision of the good life the authors treat the connections between joy and themes of creation theodicy politics suffering pastoral practice eschatology and more driven by the conviction that vital relationship with the living God is integral to our fullest flourishing as human creatures

Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J. Lawless, 2015-08-10 Do women preach differently than men In Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J Lawless contends that they do Drawing on her study of more than 150 sermons and extensive interviews with the clergywomen who preached them Lawless argues that women have changed traditional preaching in ways that reflect their socialization as women and their experiences of being female in America Many of the women in her study were expected to take courses on the art of preaching as part of their seminary training Most of them rejected the sermon structure and strategies they were taught in seminary viewing them as part of a male homiletic tradition and developed styles that celebrate their commitment to connection relationship and dialogue

Christ-Centered Leadership David L. McKenna, 2013-05-09 If a leader is a Christian what difference does it make Giant strides have been made in secular leadership theory toward a Christian viewpoint Priority is now given to character as well as competence accountability as well as power transformation as well as transaction and servanthood as well as success But these qualities apply to secular as well as to Christian leadership So the question remains What difference does it make David McKenna finds the answer in the Incarnation of Jesus Christ a divine act for him and a defining attitude for us Philippians 2:11-15 sets the standard and gives the details Your attitude should be the same as Jesus Christ means following his call to the cross where we die to self and sacrifice all self interest in position power and prestige in order to serve obediently faithfully and humbly for the good of others and the glory of God Christ centered leadership is not an extension of the highest and best of human leadership Radical obedience to the call of Christ and utter dependence upon the Holy Spirit make a substantive difference In the most practical terms Incarnation continues in us when we live fully lead freely and go where he wants us to go Awakening Youth Discipleship Brian J. Mahan, Michael Warren, David F. White, 2008-01-01 Youth ministry has increasingly lost touch with its origins in the way of Jesus and the social practices intrinsic to Christian discipleship and has instead substituted layers of Jesus talk middle class values fun and games and doses of warm fellow feeling Awakening Youth Discipleship articulates the history of this domestication of youth and ministry Mahan Warren and White tell a story of the ways in which our society has colluded to shape a domesticated adolescence The authors believe a Christian response to this challenge must be multilevel addressing the problem at three levels society church and individual The authors propose reclaiming practices of discernment that both engage congregations in social awareness and involve individuals in discerning fuller vocational opportunities than those allowed by popular cultural norms A Sourcebook about Sunday Paul Ford, J. Michael Thompson, 2005 Just like others in our Sourcebook series this book includes excerpts from scripture and the liturgy as well as from prose and poetry both ancient and modern It helps us prepare for ponder and celebrate Sunday Beginning with the origins of our Sunday observance and lingering over the wisdom of Jewish Shabbot practices the book moves from Friday through Monday evoking the many customs and activities that have marked our keeping of the Lord's Day and enabling theological reflection This book offers materials for liturgists and catechists for those who plan retreats and for everyone desiring a richer experience of our weekly Easter Through these eloquent texts we can come to see the veneration of Sabbath and Sunday not as another obligation but as a means to our refreshment growth and intimacy with God Youth Beyond the Developmental Lens Wesley W. Ellis, 2024 Wesley Ellis exposes the harmful impact of developmental psychology in youth ministry proposing a theological anthropology that frees us for deeper relationship with young people Propelled by the conviction that we must see youth as beings rather than becomings Ellis reorients us toward relational inclusion and away from rigid developmentalism Ask of Old Paths Grace Hamman, 2025-09-09 Traditional Christian virtue and vices like abstinence gluttony and sloth make many of us bored or uncomfortable At their best these words sound dead or confusing like incomplete fossils that belong to a distant past awkwardly enshrined in a museum At worst they signify a prejudiced past when these words were wielded like weapons Yet in medieval writing the language of the virtues and vices was powerful lively and delightfully weird Patience is described as a peppercorn Unicorns preach chastity Knightly virtues fend off devious vices by throwing roses at them In medieval books words like avarice and meekness meant different things and carried different weight than they do today And great medieval preachers and poets taught the virtues as crucial to what it meant to live a life of holiness right alongside the Lord's Prayer and the Creed Ask of Old Paths by Grace Hamman meditates upon those strange and wonderful word pictures and explanations of virtues and vices found in medieval traditions of poetry sermons and treatises long confined to dusty corners of the library It focuses on the ancient tradition of virtue language called the Seven Capital Virtue Remedies pride and humility envy and love wrath and meekness avarice and mercy sloth and fortitude gluttony and abstinence lust and chastity In accessible and thoughtful chapters scholar and writer Grace Hamman shows how learning about these pairs of medieval virtues and vices can help us reevaluate our own washed out and insipid moral vocabulary in modernity Our imaginations for the good life are expanded our longing for sanctification sharpens Old ideas can give us new fire in our practice of the virtue and in that practice we imitate Jesus and become more human
