Wits 2015 Application Form:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt. FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio-political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business, the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Competition and Cooperation in Social and Political Sciences Isbandi Rukminto Adi, Rochman Achwan, 2017-12-01 The book contains essays on current issues in Social and Political Sciences such as the issues of governance and social order, social development and community development, global challenges and inequality, civil society and social movement, IT based community and social transformation, poverty alleviation and corporate social responsibility and gender issues. Asia and the Pacific are the particular regions that the conference focuses on as they have become new centers of social and political development. Therefore this book covers areas that have been traditionally known as the social and political areas such as communication studies, political studies, governance studies, criminology, sociology, social welfare, anthropology and international relations.

Visualising China in Southern Africa Juliette Leeb-du Toit, Ruth Simbao, Ross Anthony, Rui Assubuji, Ying Cheng, Malcolm Corrigan, Romain Dittgen, Esther Esmyol, Philip Harrison, Patricia Hayes, Binjun Hu, T Tu Huynh, Nicola Kritzinger, Mark Lewis, Khangelani Moyo, Stary Mwaba, Marcus Neustetter, Kristin NG-Yang, Gemma Rodrigues, Shuo Wang, Yan Yang, Lifang Zhang, 2023-03-01 China and Africa have long shared a history of allegiance and contact points through global political forces from the time of colonialism and the Cold War. With China's rise as the new superpower, its presence in Africa has expanded leading to significant economic, geopolitical and cultural shifts. While issues such as trade, aid and development have received much attention, Chinese and African encounters through the lens of the visual arts and material culture is a neglected field. Visualising China in Southern Africa Biography Circulation Transgression is a ground breaking volume that addresses this

deficit through engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production that prefigures the current relationship. The essays are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics, photography, painting, etching, sculpture, film, performance, postcards, stamps, installations, political posters, cartoons, and architecture. Visualising China in Southern Africa confines its focus to southern Africa yet even within this region the context is complex. Ethnicity and nationalism, the lingering influence of Cold War allegiances and colonial configurations all continue to play a role. The various visual cultures discussed in this volume emphasise the commonality of these categories but also point towards other shared histories that transcend the nation state category. The collection includes scholarly chapters, photo essays, interviews, and artists' personal accounts organised around four themes: material flows, orientations and transgressions, spatial imaginaries, and biographies. The artists, photographers, filmmakers, curators, and collectors in this volume include Stary Mwaba, Hua Jiming, Anawana Haloba, Gerald Machona, Nobukho Nqaba, Marcus Neustetter, Brett Murray, Diane Victor, William Kentridge, Kristin NG, Yang Kok Nam, Mark Lewis, the Chinese Camera Club of South Africa, Wu Jing, Henion Han, and Shengkai Wu.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity, Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Yusef Waghid, Mary Drinkwater, 2024-09-05. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity, Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores the intersections of contemporary understandings and practices of leadership within higher education around diversity, inclusion, and indigeneity. With contributions from four continents, the handbook brings together diverse perspectives to explore a range of topics including access, equity, cultural competence, decolonisation, student activism, and indigenous insights. Countries covered include Australia, Canada, Czech Republic, India, New Zealand, Pakistan, South Africa, and the USA. The book forms part of the Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection brought together by Mary Drinkwater.

Contemporary Management Education Piet Naudé, 2021-11-05. Why are we so important? What value do we add and what good do we create? These are the opening questions posed to management educators in this book. This is followed by uncomfortable questions about colonization: Who is in the centre and whose knowledge counts and inequality? Whom do we exclude? After questioning the easy adoption of technology, what are we embracing and the challenge posed by global warming? Can management education help stop climate change? The author ends by sketching some leadership lessons required for the future. What lessons can we learn in a black swan event? Mixing philosophical analyses with anecdotes from experience, the author does not shy away from discussing controversial views to give direction to current debates. Tracing eight such crucial questions and providing well-researched perspectives, this book is an engaging read for anyone interested in the future direction of business schools in particular and management education in general. There are many books and articles on business education, but few as deep and insightful as Contemporary Management Education. I enthusiastically recommend it to anyone who seeks to understand and improve the training of business leaders. Peter Tufano, Sa d Business School, University of Oxford. An amazing read. Piet Naudé is eclectic.

and sparkling He applies his talents to the wicked maze of management education in society No issue is more important for global business No writer is better qualified Thomas Donaldson The Wharton School University of Pennsylvania A powerful persuasive and superbly compelling book Contemporary Management Education serves as an invaluable and informative reference to the essential issues that are shaping the future Sherif Kamel Dean School of Business The American University in Cairo

Online around the World Laura M. Steckman, Marilyn J. Andrews, 2017-05-24 Covering more than 80 countries around the world this book provides a compelling contemporary snapshot of how people in other countries are using the Internet social media and mobile apps How do people in other countries use the social media platform Facebook differently than Americans do What topics are discussed on the largest online forum one in Indonesia with more than seven million registered users Why does Mongolia rate in the top ten countries worldwide for peak Internet speeds Readers of Online around the World A Geographic Encyclopedia of the Internet Social Media and Mobile Apps will discover the answers to these questions and learn about people's Internet and social media preferences on six continents outside of the online community of users within the United States The book begins with an overview of the Internet social media platforms and mobile apps that chronologically examines the development of technological innovations that have made the Internet what it is today The country specific entries that follow the overview provide demographic information and describe specific events influenced by online communications allowing readers to better appreciate the incredible power of online interactions across otherwise unconnected individuals and the realities and peculiarities of how people communicate in today's fast paced globalized and high technology environment This encyclopedia presents social media and the Internet in new light identifying how the use of language and the specific application of human culture impacts emerging technologies and communications dramatically affecting everything from politics to social activism education and censorship

Decoloniality, Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney, Pam Christie, 2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguaging It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces

Developing Knowledge Communities through Partnerships for Literacy Chestin Auzenne-Curl, Cheryl J. Craig, 2021-09-20 Developing Knowledge Communities through Partnerships for Literacy explores the development of knowledge communities safe spaces on the educational landscape where research and professional development with literacy teachers and writers can unfurl

Epistemic Freedom in Africa Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2018-06-27 Epistemic Freedom in Africa is about the struggle for African people to think theorize interpret the world and write from where they are located unencumbered by Eurocentrism The imperial denial of common humanity to some human beings meant that in turn their knowledges and experiences lost their value their epistemic virtue Now in the twenty first century descendants of enslaved displaced colonized and racialized peoples have entered academies across the world proclaiming loudly that they are human beings their lives matter and they were born into valid and legitimate knowledge systems that are capable of helping humanity to transcend the current epistemic and systemic crises Together they are engaging in diverse struggles for cognitive justice fighting against the epistemic line which haunts the twenty first century The renowned historian and decolonial theorist Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni offers a penetrating and well argued case for centering Africa as a legitimate historical unit of analysis and epistemic site from which to interpret the world whilst simultaneously making an equally strong argument for globalizing knowledge from Africa so as to attain ecologies of knowledges This is a dual process of both deprovincializing Africa and in turn provincializing Europe The book highlights how the mental universe of Africa was invaded and colonized the long standing struggles for an African university and the trajectories of contemporary decolonial movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall in South Africa This landmark work underscores the fact that only once the problem of epistemic freedom has been addressed can Africa achieve political cultural economic and other freedoms This groundbreaking new book is accessible to students and scholars across Education History Philosophy Ethics African Studies Development Studies Politics International Relations Sociology Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies The Open Access versions Chapter 1 and Chapter 9 available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429492204> have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu, Denyse Webbstock, 2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders

The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso

Ndzendze ,Asheel Singh ,Suzall Timm ,2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Gabriela C. Zapata,Mary Kalantzis,Bill

Cope,2023-12-22 Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Towards Education Justice examines how multiliteracies and Learning by Design have been taken up across international second language instructional contexts with a focus on inclusive practices and social justice This edited collection brings together a team of international contributors to offer a global perspective on the application of multiliteracies in L2 education Through the analysis of classroom based qualitative and quantitative data on different aspects of the multiliteracies pedagogy the book shows how the multiliteracies pedagogy can facilitate more inclusive practices while providing suggestions for pedagogical interventions and future research This book will be a key resource for language educators researchers and practitioners interested in the multiliteracies pedagogy as well as those interested in critical and social justice approaches to language teaching

Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis,Logan Govender,Dennis Zami Atibuni,2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent s culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa African Film Cultures Añuli Agina,Barbara Knorpp,Winston

Mano,2017-08-21 The growing body of films in and around Africa and the seemingly incongruent growth in African film scholarship suggests the need for new perspectives approaches and insights into film cultures in Africa Although it is impossible to capture the entire diversity of existing African film cultures this collection which has resulted from African film conferences organized by the University of Westminster United Kingdom has recognized the significance and urgency of this task The book offers a unique engagement with widened African film cultures in the context of diverse peoples histories geographies languages and changing film production cultures shaped by audiences and users at home and in the diaspora The volume is a significant contribution to the processes of representing the self and other as well as the emergence of alternative non official dialogues circulation and consumption including on social media Students researchers film policy makers film producers distributors and anyone else with an interest in African screen media will find in the book useful and readable analyses of socio political factors that affect and are shaped by African film

Interregionalism and the Americas Andreas Falke,Gian Luca Gardini,Simon Koschut,2018-10-15 This book addresses the question of how the American continent engages with various forms of interregionalism including how different regions within the Americas deal with other regions of the world as well as how they relate among themselves The presence of different political economic and cultural sub regions within the Americas makes the continent a perfect setting to explore differences and commonalities in the western hemisphere s relationship with other regions across the globe Interregionalism and the Americas tackles three unifying questions First what type and understanding of interregionalism characterize the Americas way to interregionalism if any Second is summitry ultimately the major visible feature of interregionalism in the Americas and beyond Third is there anything typical or characteristic in the way in which the Americas engage with interregionalism This book contributes both to the theoretical debates about interregionalism and to the empirical understanding of the phenomenon and makes a compelling case to strengthen the inter American system and to advance a trilateral interregionalism mechanism between North America Latin America and Europe to stand up for their common values norms and preferred international order
