Koopman, 2023-05-23 This book offers an important contribution to the field of curriculum studies and higher education by examining the impacts of colonialism and neoliberalism in the South African education system and addressing ways to decolonise curriculum and teaching Drawing on Pinar's work in curricular theory the authors call for integrating self reflective curriculum development into the national curriculum process to promote indigenous education and knowledge ECCWS 2018 17th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security V2 Audun Jøsang, 2018-06-21 The Anthropology of White Supremacy Aisha M. Beliso-De Jesús, Jemima Pierre, Junaid Rana, 2025-01-28 White supremacy has shaped cultural anthropology from its inception yet the discipline also offers powerful tools for understanding how this corrosive force structures societies around the world The Anthropology of White Supremacy explores how this phenomenon works around the globe and within anthropology itself Gathering original essays from a diverse international group of anthropologists this collection illustrates that white supremacy far from being only a fringe belief of white nationalists and fascists is a core mainstream ideology The book includes essays about many countries including Brazil Mexico Nigeria Norway Senegal South Africa and the United States and takes up such topics as American advertising the Belgian Congo South Asian philosophies police cadets U S immigration courts Guant namo memoirs Palestinian feminism Hollywood paparazzi and how Indigenous anthropologists can counter the damage of settler colonialism The result reveals not only how anthropology can help us to better comprehend white supremacy but also how the discipline can help us begin to dismantle it With contributions by Omolade Adunbi Samar Al Bulushi Aisha M Beliso De Jes s Michael Blakey Mitzi Uehara Carter Subhadra Mitra Channa Celina de S Vanessa Diaz Britt Halvorson Faye Harrison Sarah Ihmoud Anthony R Jerry Darryl Li Krist n Loftsd ttir Christopher Loperena Keisha Khan Y Perry Jemima Pierre Jean Muteba Rahier Laurence Ralph Renya K Ramirez Junaid Rana Joshua Reno Jonathan Rosa Shalini Shankar and Maria Styve The Suburbs Marie Bouchet,Nathalie Cochoy,Isabelle Keller-Privat,Mathilde Rogez,2022-02-01 While suburbs provide a rich field of research for sociologists architects urbanists and anthropologists they have not been given much attention in literary and cultural studies The Suburbs New Literary Perspectives sets out to enrich the limited existing body of critical analysis on the subject with a landmark collection of essays offering a far larger perspective than the books or collections published so far on the topic This interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach includes literary and art studies philosophy and cultural comment It examines the suburbs across cultural differences contrasting British South African and North American suburbs The specificity of this book therefore lies in a cross national and cross continental exploration of these unchartered territories The suburbs are redefined as those rebellious margins whose geographical borders are necessarily fuzzy and sketch out a common place where cultural frontiers can be transcended They are to use Sarah Nuttall s terminology places of entanglement where contraries meet and where new ways of being in the world is reborn Seen through the prism of art and literature the suburbs may then be recognized as philosopher Bruce B gout argues as a new way of thinking and making urban space The Paradox of Planetary Human Entanglements Inocent Moyo,Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2022-12-30 The Paradox of Planetary Human Entanglements provides a nuanced understanding of the complexity of planetary human entanglements in this age of increased borderisation and territorialisation racism and xenophobia and inclusion and exclusion One of the greatest paradoxes of the 21st century is that of increased planetary human entanglements enabled by globalisation on the one hand and by the rising tide of exclusionary right wing politics of racism xenophobia and the building of walled states on the other The characteristic feature of this paradox is the unrestrained move towards the detention and incarceration of those who attempt to migrate This brings to the fore the issue of borders in terms of their materiality and symbolism and how this mediates belonging citizenship and the ethics or lack thereof and politics of living together This book shows that at the core of border and migration restrictions is the desire to exclude certain categories of people which aptly demonstrates that borders in their materiality are not for everyone but for those who are considered undesirable migrants The authors examine questions of borders nationalism migration immigration and belonging setting the basis of a campaign for planetary humanism grounded on human dignity which transcends ethnicity and nationality This book will be a useful resource for students scholars and researchers of African Studies Border Studies Migration Studies Development Studies International Studies Black Studies International Relations and Political Science Contemporary Management Education Piet Naudé,2021-11-05 Why are we so important What value do we add and What good do we create These are the opening questions posed to management educators in this book This is followed by uncomfortable questions about colonization Who is in the centre and whose knowledge counts and inequality Whom do we exclude After questioning the easy adoption of technology What are we embracing and the challenge posed by global warming Can management education help stop climate change the author ends by sketching some leadership lessons required for the future What lessons can we learn in a black swan event Mixing philosophical analyses with anecdotes from experience the author does not shy away from discussing controversial views to give direction to current debates Tracing eight such crucial questions and providing well researched perspectives this book is an engaging read for anyone interested in the future direction of business schools in particular and management education in general There are many books and articles on business education but few as deep and insightful as Contemporary Management Education I enthusiastically recommend it to anyone who seeks to understand and improve the training of business leaders Peter Tufano Sa d Business School University of Oxford An amazing read Piet Naude is eclectic and sparkling He applies his talents to the wicked maze of management education in society No issue is more important for global business No writer is better qualified Thomas Donaldson The Wharton School University of Pennsylvania A powerful persuasive and superbly compelling book Contemporary Management Education serves as an invaluable and informative reference to the essential issues that are shaping the future Sherif Kamel Dean School of Business The American University in Cairo a lyrical script and the creative use of lighting and sound one woman the Narrator succeeds in evoking a host of characters as this allegorical tale of oppression and liberation plays itself out On a cold and starless night a young pregnant widow Nandi arrives in Tin Town a bleak drought stricken place ruled by silence and fear Little do the inhabitants know that Nandi is carrying the baby who will in time change that Taken in by Umkhulu grandfather whose father established the tin bucket factory that gave the town its name Nandi gives birth to Nomvula the Little Drummer Girl Umkhulu remembers a past when people were free to sing and dance when the rain came and the townsfolk held up their tin buckets to catch the precious life giving drops And then came the Silent Sir and his spokesman the Censor and the town went silent As the singing and dancing and drumming dried up so did the rain The tin bucket factory closed taking with it the life and purpose of Tin Town s inhabitants Only the Little Drummer Girl can bring back that life but at enormous personal cost In Tin Bucket Drum Neil Copen achieves a small miracle Through his lyrical script and the creative use of lighting and sound one woman the Narrator succeeds in evoking a host of characters as this allegorical tale of oppression and liberation plays itself out It is a story that offers a host of lessons for many places and many times The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca

Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature For an Anti-capitalist Psychology of Community Nick Malherbe, 2022-04-22 Anti capitalist political struggle is a site of struggling psychologies Conscious political action is never far from unconscious desire and the fight for material justice is always also the fight for dignity and psychological well being Yet how might community psychologists conceive of their discipline in a way that opposes the very capitalist political economy that historically most of the psy disciplines have bolstered in return for disciplinary legitimacy In its consideration of an anti capitalist psychology of community this book does not ignore or try to resolve the contradictory position of such a psychology Instead it draws on these contradictions to enliven psychology to the shifting demands both creative and destructive of a community centred anti capitalism Using practical examples the book deals with the psychological components of building community centred social movements that challenge neoliberal capitalism as a political system an ideology and a mode of governing rationality The book also offers several theoretical contributions that grapple with how an anti capitalist psychology of community can remain attentive to the psychological elements of anti capitalist struggle what the psychological can tell us about anti capitalist politics and how these politics can shape the psychological

'Africa Forms the Key' Suryakanthie Chetty,2021-01-04 This book examines the work of prominent South African geologist Alex Du Toit as a means of understanding the debate around continental drift both in segregation era South Africa and internationally It contextualises Du Toit s work within a particularly formative period of South African science from the paleoanthropological discoveries that sparked debates about the origins of humankind to Jan Smuts own theory of holism Beyond South African scientific discoveries the book sets Du Toit s work against a backdrop of ideological struggles over space both domestically in terms of segregation and nationalism as well as internationally as South Africa sought to assert its position within the Commonwealth These debates were embodied by Du Toit s work on the theory of continental drift which put Africa and South Africa at the centre geologically and geographically The author also focuses on the divisions in geology caused by drift theory tracing the vigorous intellectual debate and dissent indicative of the ideological milieu within which scientific thought is constructed It traces the history of continental drift from its inception in the nineteenth century and later work of Alfred Wegener which was both elaborated upon and substantiated by Du Toit The study further focuses on Du Toit s research on continental drift in South African and South America and the geological fossil and climatological evidence used to bolster this theory
