Wits Tuition Fees For 2015:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt #RhodesMustFall B. Nyamnjoh, 2016-04-18 This book on rights entitlements and citizenship in post apartheid South Africa shows how the playing field has not been as levelled as presumed by some and how racism and its benefits persist Through everyday interactions and experiences of university students and professors it explores the question of race in a context still plagued by remnants of apartheid inequality and perceptions of inferiority and inadequacy among the majority black population In education black voices and concerns go largely unheard as circles of privilege are continually regenerated and added onto a layered and deep history of cultivation of black pain These issues are examined against the backdrop of organised student protests sweeping through the countrys universities with a renewed clamour for transformation around a rallying cry of Black Lives Matter The nuanced complexity of this insightful analysis of the Rhodes Must Fall movement elicits compelling questions about the attractions and dangers of exclusionary articulations of belonging What could a grand imperialist like the stripling Uitlander or foreigner of yesteryear Sir Cecil John Rhodes possibly have in common with the present day nimble footed makwerekwere from Africa north of the Limpopo The answer Nyamnjoh suggests is to be found in how human mobility relentlessly tests the boundaries of citizenship Modern State Development, Capacity, and Institutions Derica Lambrechts, 2017-07-31 This book makes an important original conceptual and theoretical contribution to our understanding of modern state development the role of the state and the South African transition to democracy Its focus on related concepts such as state capacity political trust and tolerance adds to insights on the dynamics of political and democratic transitions Furthermore the selected focus areas as well as the comparative approach add new insights into the peculiarities of the South African transition state development state capacity and state institutions Its focus on societal dynamics and state society relations is a significant contribution #RhodesMustFall Nyamnjoh, Francis B.,2016-04-18 This book on rights entitlements and citizenship in post apartheid South Africa shows how the playing field has not been as levelled as presumed by some and how racism and its benefits persist Through everyday interactions and experiences of university students and professors it explores the question of race in a context still plagued by remnants of apartheid inequality and perceptions of inferiority and inadequacy among the majority black population In education black voices and concerns go largely unheard as circles of privilege are continually regenerated and added onto a layered and deep history of cultivation of black pain These issues are examined against the backdrop of organised student protests sweeping through the country s universities with a renewed clamour for transformation around a rallying cry of Black Lives Matter The nuanced complexity of this insightful analysis of the Rhodes Must Fall movement elicits compelling questions about the attractions and dangers of exclusionary articulations of belonging What could a grand imperialist like the stripling Uitlander or foreigner of yesteryear Sir Cecil John Rhodes possibly have in common with the present day nimble footed makwerekwere from Africa north of the Limpopo The answer Nyamnjoh suggests is to be found in how human mobility relentlessly tests the boundaries of citizenship Youth In South Africa Ariane De Lannoy,Malose Langa,2021-05-05 South Africa is characterised by a youthful population and the challenges and possibilities that characterise the young generation are both warning signs and beacons of hope for a nation founded on social justice Youth in South Africa Agency in visibility and national development takes stock of the nation s development as it affects young people Authors offer both personal and professional insights into the ways in which the youth navigate their own pathways to adulthood These include formal and informal engagements with politics as well as protest un employment entrepreneurship education religion experiences with sexuality and violence and a multitude of other life experiences Contributors paint a picture of the initiative agency and resilience of the youth as well as the challenges before them Authors also identify the state of waithood faced by those unable to make the transition out of youth into full adulthood as a result of their socio economic circumstances and political context By engaging these experiences and insights and primarily informed by the inputs of young people the authors highlight the limitations of existing youth policies and frameworks The case is made for policy instruments to be informed by the lived experiences of the youth as they navigate a complex macrosocial environment and by the messages the youth communicate about the limitations of current approaches Power Shift? Political Leadership and Social Media David Taras,Richard Davis,2019-12-09 Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media examines how political leaders have adapted to the challenges of social media including Facebook Instagram Twitter and memes among other means of persuasion Established political leaders now use social media to grab headlines respond to opponents fundraise contact voters directly and organize their election campaigns Leaders of protest movements have used social media to organize and galvanize grassroots support and to popularize new narratives that challenge and sometimes overturn conventional thinking Yet each social media platform provides different affordances and different attributes and each is used differently by political leaders In this book leading international experts provide an unprecedented look at the role of social media in leadership today Through a series of case studies dealing with topics ranging from Emmanuel Macron and Donald Trump s use of Twitter to Justin Trudeau s use of selfies and Instagram to how feminist leaders mobilize against stereotypes and injustices the authors argue that many leaders have found additional avenues to communicate with the public and use power This raises the question of whether this is causing a power shift in the relationship between leaders and followers Together the chapters in this book suggest new rules of engagement that leaders ignore at their peril The lack of systematic theoretically informed and empirically supported analyses makes Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media an indispensable read for students and scholars wishing to gain new understanding on what social media means for leadership

Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution

The South African State Transformed? Louis A. Picard, Thomas M. Mogale, Caitlin C. Corrigan, 2024-09-10 This book examines the nature of the 1994 political transition in South Africa and its impact on post apartheid South Africa Specifically it examines the failures of liberalism within the context of the transitional process that led to the institution if not the practice of a non racial state in 1994 The term liberal is an eclectic term defining a several of views political and economic We use the term here within context but essentially define it as a commitment to open views the willingness to consider change and to value basic human rights The nature of institutional change in South Africa as it moved towards a democratic state would influence whether South Africa would succeed as a newly industrializing pluralist democratic country or collapse into yet another African failed state As South Africa moves toward its fourth decade of majority rule the view towards the future is much less promising than it was in 1994

Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent's culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa

Writing Centres in Higher Education Sherran Clarence, 2017-10-11 This collection of essays reflects on the ways in which writing centres in South Africa are working in and across disciplines Institutional constraints and challenges that arise from these collaborations are addressed and opportunities for transforming teaching and learning spaces are explored The chapters speak to the global move in higher education to reconsider how knowledge is made who makes it and how support and development opportunities for students and lecturers should be created and sustained across the disciplines This volume contributes to the body of knowledge in the growing field of the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education in South Africa It builds on the work of the first collection of such essays Changing Spaces Writing Centres and Access to Higher Education Eds A Archer and R Richards 2011 SUN PReSS to understand why working within the disciplines is so critical for writing development in a South African context

The Responsive University and the Crisis in South Africa, 2021-05-31 Around the world higher education is faced with a fundamental question what is the basis for our claim of societal legitimacy In this book the authors go beyond the classical response regarding teaching research and community engagement Instead the editor puts forward the proposition that the answer lies in responsiveness the extent to which universities respond or fail to respond to societal challenges Moreover because of its intractable legacy issues and crisis of inequality the question regarding the societal legitimacy of universities is particularly clearly manifested in South Africa one of the most unequal countries in the world The Responsive University brings together contributions on the issue of responsiveness from a number of international university leaders half of them specifically addressing the South African situation within the context of the international situation as presented by the other authors In the global discussion about the role of universities in society this book provides a conceptual framework for a way forward

For an Anti-capitalist Psychology of Community Nick Malherbe, 2022-04-22 Anti capitalist political struggle is a site of struggling psychologies Conscious political action is never far from unconscious desire and the fight for material justice is always also the fight for dignity and psychological well being Yet how might community psychologists conceive of their discipline in a way that opposes the very capitalist political economy that historically most of the psy disciplines have bolstered in return for disciplinary legitimacy In its consideration of an anti capitalist psychology of community this book does not ignore or try to resolve the contradictory position of such a psychology Instead it draws on these contradictions to enliven psychology to the shifting demands both creative and destructive of a community centred anti capitalism Using practical examples the book deals with the psychological components of building community centred social movements that challenge neoliberal capitalism as a political system an ideology and a mode of governing rationality The book also offers several theoretical contributions that grapple with how an anti capitalist psychology of community can remain attentive to the psychological elements of anti capitalist struggle what the psychological can tell us about anti capitalist politics and how these politics can shape the psychological

Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students' language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy Youth and Popular Culture in Africa Paul Ugor,2021 The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations visual oral written performative fictional social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality 2007 04 So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work how they produce those texts why they produce them the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political economic and social systems Truth Without Reconciliation Abena Ampofoa Asare,2018-07-31 Abena Ampofoa Asare identifies the documents testimonies and petitions gathered by Ghana s National Reconciliation Commission as a portal to an unprecedented public archive of Ghanaian political history as told by the self described survivors of human rights abuse
