Global University Rankings and the Mediatization of Higher Education Michelle Stack, 2016-04-12 Higher Education Institutions simultaneously critique and participate in national and international rankings of universities However this creates a difficult situation since if universities do participate in rankings they acquiesce to a system based in media logics that has little to do with academic norms of research If they do not participate in the rankings they risk losing public funding students and donors in an increasingly competitive and globalized environment This book delves into the influence of journalists business tycoons and multinational corporations in defining what world class is and how it will be measured Rankings provide us with a rich study for understanding how universities define deploy and manage their assets and liabilities in a mediatized globalized economy

Coloniality and Decolonisation in the Nordic Region Adrián Groglopo, Julia Suárez-Krabbe, 2023-03-22 This book advances critical discussions about what coloniality decoloniality and decolonisation mean and imply in the Nordic region It brings together analysis of complex realities from the perspectives of the Nordic peoples a region that is often overlooked in current research and explores the processes of decolonisation that are taking place in this region The book offers a variety of perspectives that engage with issues such as Islamic feminism and the progressive left racialisation and agency among Muslim youths indigenising distance language education for Sami extractivism and resistance among the Sami the Nordic international development endeavour through education Swedish TV reporting on Venezuela creolizing subjectivities across Roma and non Roma worlds and hierarchies and the whitewashing and sanitisation of decoloniality in the Nordic region As such this book extends much of the productive dialogue that has recently occurred internationally in decolonial thinking but also in the areas of critical race theory whiteness studies and postcolonial studies to concrete and critical problems in the Nordic region This should make the book of considerable interest to scholars of history of ideas anthropology sociology cultural studies postcolonial studies international development studies legal sociology and intercultural philosophy with an interest in coloniality and decolonial social change

Culture, Organization, and Management in South Africa Marja Spiereburg, Harry Wels, 2006 South Africa is celebrating its first decade of democratic freedom It therefore seems appropriate to examine in more detail how South Africa has tried to restore some of the many social injustices caused by the former apartheid regime This book offers a view into the world of organisation and management from a cultural perspective The authors investigate how initiatives and policies with the aim of generating more employment equity have been developed implemented and have worked out in various sectors of the South African economy The various chapters present in depth case studies that deal with the South African government local NGOs universities and tourism The book reveals in detail the local struggles of the historically disadvantaged and the powers that be to try and live up to the ideals of the New South Africa

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO s ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Es kia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature s place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today List of Serials Johannesburg (South Africa). Public Library,1961

Changing Our Worlds Michelle LeBaron,Janis Sarra,2018-07-03 Changing Our Worlds draws on the wisdom of African artists theorists educators and leaders It profiles an array of transformative arts projects that among other things changed attitudes and behaviours toward HIV testing and prevention helped rural citizens to design and build a new community centre and supported those with HIV AIDS to strengthen their resilience As a group of scholar practitioners collaborating on the book reinforced our confidence in the potency of arts practices to unsettle unjust orders inspire new visions and embrace the human dignity that comes from acknowledging the interdependent world in which we live The Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot,2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book s focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region s Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant placed based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level

This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South
