

WIZARD OF OZ

NARRATOR: Once there was a girl named Dorothy. She lived with her parents in the heart of the great Kansas prairies. One day Dorothy and her dog, Toto, were playing inside the house. Suddenly, there appeared a large cyclone that picked the house right up off its foundation with Dorothy and Toto still inside! It carried them high into the sky. After several days, the house landed with a crash.

Dorothy walked to the door and much to her surprise, she was in a strange land. Standing before her was a crowd of little people. They were colorfully dressed. The little people seemed very happy to see Dorothy, who now spoke to their leader.

DOROTHY: Who are you?

MAYOR: I'm the Munchkin mayor. We'd like to thank you for killing the Wicked Witch.

DOROTHY: What do you mean? I haven't killed anyone.

NARRATOR: The mayor pointed to the corner of the house and there, sticking out from under the large beam, were two feet in red shoes.

MAYOR: Your house landed on top of the Witch.

NARRATOR: The Munchkins explained that they had been the Witch's slaves for many years. Today, however, Dorothy had rid them of the Witch and they were at last set free from her evil spell. Then the leader presented Dorothy with the red shoes that the Wicked Witch was wearing.

MAYOR: These shoes are yours now. I'm not sure, but I've heard they're magic.

NARRATOR: Dorothy thanked him and put the shoes on. They fit her perfectly! Then she asked the crowd if they knew how she could get back to Kansas. Since no one had ever heard of Kansas, they could not answer her question. But, the Munchkin Mayor had a wonderful idea.

MAYOR: The Wizard of OZ could help.

Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24

For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn't as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader's own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films
