Women Of Owu Characterization:

The Politics of Adaptation Astrid Van Weyenberg, 2013 This book explores contemporary African adaptations of classical Greek tragedies Six South African and Nigerian dramatic texts by Yael Farber Mark Fleishman Athol Fugard Femi Osofisan and Wole Soyinka are analysed through the thematic lens of resistance revolution reconciliation and mourning The opening chapters focus on plays that mobilize Greek tragedy to inspire political change discussing how Sophocles heroine Antigone is reconfigured as a freedom fighter and how Euripides Dionysos is transformed into a revolutionary leader The later chapters shift the focus to plays that explore the costs and consequences of political change examining how the cycle of violence dramatized in Aeschylus Oresteia trilogy acquires relevance in post apartheid South Africa and how the mourning of Euripides Trojan Women resonates in and beyond Nigeria Throughout the emphasis is on how playwrights through adaptation perform a cultural politics directed at the Europe that has traditionally considered ancient Greece as its property foundation and legitimization Van Weyenberg additionally discusses how contemporary African reworkings of Greek tragedies invite us to reconsider how we think about the genre of tragedy and about the cultural process of adaptation Against George Steiner's famous claim that tragedy has died this book demonstrates that Greek tragedy holds relevance today But it also reveals that adaptations do more than simply keeping the texts they draw on alive through adaptation playwrights open up a space for politics In this dynamic between adaptation and pre text the politics of adaptation is performed

Portrayals of Masculinity in Nigerian Plays Beatrice Nwawuloke Onuoha, 2023-10-16 Portrayals of Masculinity in Nigerian Plays explores Nigerian people's notions of masculinity as portrayed in twelve Nigerian plays written by three generations of Nigerian playwrights She argues that hegemonic masculinity and other forms which are referred to as alternative masculinities exist in traditional Nigerian society By analyzing plays written by first second and third generation Nigerian playwrights Onuoha tracks how notions about masculinity have evolved over the years Further she discusses the malleability of masculinity by exploring how women manifest qualities associated with masculinity within Nigerian plays Through a review of critical studies on gender constructions Onuoha examines not only the negative experiences of women within an African patriarchal system but also the negative experiences of the men who are also direct or indirect victims of such a system

Re-writing Pasts, Imagining Futures Gomia, Victor N., Ndi, Gilbert Shang, 2018-02-20 The papers in this volume focus on fiction and theatre in their traditional forms as well as in their encounters with novel and innovative forms and avenues of dissemination As a cultural practice that emerged from a process of protest and contestation of hegemony it is understandable that one main concern in African literature and literary criticism is the resistance against the emergence of marginalizing centers in formerly or currently marginalized societies with regard to discourses aesthetics and media of creation These new centers that sometimes undermine the strategic tactical exploitation of the relative advantage procured by each medium run the risk of leading to new forms of stratification that mitigate the import of African and African diasporic literatures The collection of essays therefore seeks to analyze the representation of pertinent socio political and historical questions in a variety of postcolonial texts from Africa and the African diasporas notably the Caribbean islands and the United States of America However far from re writing of history in a way that cedes to conservative worldviews creative writers and critics simultaneously attempt to chart ways forward for socially all inclusive futures In the context of colonial and neo colonial legacies that seem to forestall any sense of individual and collective self fulfillment contributors to this volume examine the pertinence of African fiction and theatre in imagining new vistas of re conceptualizing the postcolonial condition in ways that re galvanize the belief in an enabling future

African Shakespeare Ifeoluwa Aboluwa, Serena Talento, Pepetual Mforbe Chiangong, Oliver Nyambi, 2025-02-17 African Shakespeare Subversions Appropriations Negotiations uncovers the multidimensional inventions synergies and experimentations that have emerged from performative political literary and conceptual encounters with Shakespeare and his oeuvre in African contexts Divided into three broad and overlapping parts the chapters of the book critically explore issues of decoloniality and postcoloniality nation building and state corruption history and memory gender and feminism translation and adaptation from diverse theoretical standpoints The book displaces the emphasis on Shakespeare's works to productively illuminate the multi layered significance of African epistemes politico aesthetics languages and socio cultural realities to the practice and process of literary and theatrical intervention and creation Building on and extending extant scholarship in the field of African Shakespeare the contributions in the volume not only enhance knowledge of African Shakespearean creations but also enrich African Studies and Shakespeare Studies by opening up new possibilities for transdisciplinary dialogues and cross fertilization The book will be useful for students and scholars of African Theatre and Performance Cultural Studies Global Shakespeare Studies Translation and Adaptation Studies and Post colonial Studies

Being and Becoming Ukpokolo, Chinyere, 2016-02-27 This book illuminates the complex and constantly shifting social and cultural dynamics that shape people's identity Specifically the volume focuses on the intersections of gender with culture and identity and at different historical epochs on the way men and women define themselves and are defined by diverse peoples and cultures across time and space in sub Saharan Africa The discussions presented in this anthology primarily focus on being as a state or condition defined by sex identity and how this identity shifts and hence becoming assuming diverse meanings in disparate societies contexts and time The discourse therefore moves from how the perception of the self in cultural and historical contexts has informed actions and at some other times shaped interpretations given to historical facts to how changing economic realities also shape the definitions and constructions of social and relational issues in Sub Saharan Africa The historical trajectories of Islamic religion colonialism and Christian missionary activities in sub Saharan Africa have shaped the worlds of the peoples of the region and impacted on gender relations vision and defining themselves rather as counterdiscourses This the first part of the book a metacritical discourse on the geopolitics the inherent power imbalances of academic writing and its effects on od n the performances dedicated to the gods ancestors and heroes of Yor b history But od n where is it and what is it And the voice The many critical discourses have not really answered these questions In effect od n is many things To enable the reader to see these the study proceeds with an intermezzo a frame of reference that sets od n the festival in its own historico cultural ecoenvironment identifying the strategies that inform the performance and constitute its aesthetic It is a classical yet for od n an innovative procedure This interdisciplinary background equips the reader with the knowledge necessary to watch the performance to witness its beauty and to understand the half words od n utters And now the performance can begin The voice emerges one last time to introduce the second section which presents two case studies The reader is led day by day through the celebrations od n ed Mor mi s story and its realization in performance then confrontation by the masks of the ancestors duing od n eg ng n particularly as held in Ibadan The meaning of od n becomes clearer and clearer Od n is poetry dances masks food prayer It is play er and belief gb gb It is interaction between the players both performers and spectators It is also politics and power It contains secrets and sacrifices It is a reality with its own dimension and above all as the quintessential site of knowledge it possesses the power to transform In short it is a challenge a challenge that the present book and its voices take up
