INTRODUCTION

Wood Elves are one of the fastest teams in the game, and like all elves they have Agility 4 on all their players. They have the best rookie player in the game - the Wardancer, the highest moving thrower, the fastest of all elf linemen, the only elf catcher to start with Dodge and they are also the only elf team that has an optional big guy. On the flip side, they have very expensive players and low Av.

Wood Elves are in my opinion one of the best teams in the game at all TV ranges but they are in no way my favourite team to play with. They may struggle in the battle of attrition when playing against high TV bash teams; however that will usually not stop them from winning the game.

THE WOOD ELF WAY

There are two main schools of thought on how to play with Wood Elves. – ultra aggressive, or a more measured approach. Neither is the correct way and both have their pros and cons though the cautious more measured players will generally have the greater success over the longer periods of time. This playbook will look at both approaches throughout the various sections. The other bone of contention is whether or not to take a Treeman, more on this later.
