Modernism, Imperialism and the Historical Sense Paul Stasi, 2012-07-30 Modernist art and literature sought to engage with the ideas of different cultures without eradicating the differences between them In Modernism Imperialism and the Historical Sense Paul Stasi explores the relationship between high modernist aesthetic forms and structures of empire in the twentieth century Stasi's text offers new readings of James Joyce Ezra Pound T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf by situating their work within an early moment of globalization By combining the insights of Marxist historiography aesthetic theory and postcolonial criticism Stasi's careful analysis reveals how these authors aesthetic forms responded to and helped shape their unique historical moment Written with a wide readership in mind this book will appeal especially to scholars of British and American literature as well as students of literary criticism and postcolonial studies A Philosophical Dictionary

Voltaire, Abner Kneeland, 1836 Unseasonable Youth Jed Esty, 2011-11-04 Unseasonable Youth examines a range of modernist era fictions that cast doubt on the ideology of progress through the figure of stunted or endless adolescence Novels of youth by Oscar Wilde Olive Schreiner Rudyard Kipling Joseph Conrad H G Wells James Joyce Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys and Elizabeth Bowen disrupt the inherited conventions of the bildungsroman in order to criticize bourgeois values and to reinvent the biographical plot but also to explore the contradictions inherent in mainstream developmental discourses of self nation and empire The intertwined tropes of frozen youth and uneven development as motifs of failed progress play a crucial role in the emergence of dilatory modernist style and in the reimagination of colonial space at the fin de siècle The genre bending logic of uneven development never wholly absent from the coming of age novel takes on a new and more intense form in modernism as it fixes its broken allegory to the problem of colonial development In novels of unseasonable youth the nineteenth century idea of world progress comes up against stubborn signs of underdevelopment and uneven development just at the same moment that post Darwinian racial sciences and quasi Freudian sexological discourses lend greater influence to the idea that certain forms of human difference cannot be mitigated by civilizing or developmental forces In this historical context the temporal meaning and social vocation of the bildungsroman undergo a comprehensive shift as the history of the novel indexes the gradual displacement of historical progressive thinking by anthropological structural thinking in the Age of Empire Unseasonable Youth Joshua Esty, 2012 The bildungsroman with its elegant arc charting a protagonist's progression from childhood to maturity is one of literature's most familiar and enduring genres Yet in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries a series of novels appeared that began to upend this classical formula Rather than moving smoothly into adulthood the characters in these new coming of age fictions seemed to veer off course into a state of suspended or stunted adolescence Modernist era novels of unseasonable youth disrupt the inherited conventions of the bildungsroman in order to criticize bourgeois values and to reinvent the biographical plot but also to explore the contradictions inherent in developmental discourses of self nation and empire Narratives of world progress run up against stubborn developmental obstacles just at the same moment that post Darwinian racial sciences and Freudian sexological theories were lending influence to the idea that some forms of human difference cannot be mitigated by civilizing forces In this context the modernist bildungsroman can be seen as narrating the gradual displacement of historical progressive thinking by anthropological structural thinking in the Age of Empire Jed Esty follows this fascinating line of argument through analysis of novels by Kipling Wilde Conrad Joyce Woolf Rhys and others to reveal how intertwined tropes of frozen youth and uneven development as motifs of failed progress play a crucial role in the emergence of dilatory modernist style and in the re imagination of colonial space at the fin de siecle
