Exploration and Production of Oceanic Natural Gas Hydrate Michael D. Max, Arthur H. Johnson, 2016-08-16 This book describes aspects of the natural gas hydrate NGH system that offer opportunities for the innovative application of existing technology and development of new technology that could dramatically lower the cost of NGH exploration and production. It is written for energy industry professionals and those concerned with energy choices and efficiencies at a university graduate level. The NGH resource is compared with physical environmental and commercial aspects of other gas resources. The authors' theme is that natural gas can provide for base and peak load energy demands during the transition to and possibly within a renewable energy future. This is possibly the most useful book discussing fossil fuels that will be a reference for environmentalists and energy policy institutions and for the environmental and energy community.

The World's Great Letters Max Lincoln Schuster, 1910 Lives and Letters, 1910 100 Letters that Changed the World Colin Salter, 2019-12-12 An intriguing collection of the most inspiring and powerful letters of all time. The written word has the power to inspire, astonish, and entertain, as this collection of 100 letters that changed history will show. Ordered chronologically, the letters range from ink inscribed tablets that vividly describe life in the Roman Empire to remarkable last wills and testaments, passionate outpourings of love and despair, and succinct notes with deadly consequences. Entries include a job application from Leonardo da Vinci with barely a mention of his artistic talents; Henry VIII's love letters to Anne Boleyn, which eventually led to the dissolution of the monasteries; the scrawled note that brought about Oscar Wilde's downfall; Emile Zola's J'accuse open letter in support of an alleged spy and against anti-Semitism; Beatrix Potter's correspondence with a friend's son that introduced the character of Peter Rabbit; a last letter from the Titanic; Nelson Mandela's ultimatum to the South African president.
