

The background of the slide is a digital illustration of a desert at night. In the foreground, there are rolling sand dunes under a dark, starry sky. A large, ornate golden lamp, similar to the one from Disney's Aladdin, sits on the left side of the dunes. A bright, glowing blue light emanates from the lamp's spout, rising into the air and forming a swirling, ethereal shape. The overall color palette is dominated by deep blues, purples, and the warm gold of the lamp and sand.

press local newspapers and a range of other primary sources including archival records on cinemas and cinema circuits in Arkansas California New York State and Texas this book examines how drive ins were integrated into local communities and the film industry and reveals the importance and range of drive in programmes that were often close to that of their indoor neighbours
