Thousands of Christians all over the world are reporting transformational experiences through Theophostic Prayer Ministry. Their testimonies are powerful yet controversy remains for some. Skeptics say testimonials are limited and empirical proof is needed. This gives rise for quality research. The case studies in this book provide a good start and help to determine if more costly and rigorous studies are merited. This book is written without a lot of scientific jargon to appeal to both professional and lay person alike. The researchers tell the stories of some of the clients in the study along with providing charts, graphs and detailed reports from their test findings. Finally a summary of all the results from the sixteen clients that completed this study is closely examined. The positive outcomes represent a first small step in evaluating Theophostic Prayer. Even though more research studies need to be completed the findings from this study are very encouraging. They provide a clear idea of the type of studies that need to follow this case study work in order to more fully assess this approach. In the final chapter Ed Smith the founder of Theophostic Prayer answers many frequently asked questions about Theophostic Prayer. Dr Fernando Garzon is an Associate Professor in the Center for Counseling and Family Studies at Liberty University. He has a Psy D in Clinical Psychology from Fuller Theological Seminary and a B A in Biology from Wake Forest University. His interest areas include spiritual interventions in psychotherapy and Christian counselor education. Liberty University does not officially endorse Theophostic Prayer Ministry but rather supports the theological and scientific examination of this and other Christian intervention strategies. Correspondence regarding this book may be sent to Dr Garzon at Liberty University 1971 University Blvd Lynchburg VA 24502 or fgarzon@liberty.edu

The Failure of Evangelical Mental Health Care John Weaver, 2014-11-26

In the evangelical community a variety of alternative mental health treatments deliverance exorcism biblical counseling reparative therapy and many others have been proposed for the treatment of mentally ill female and LGBT evangelicals. This book traces the history of these methods focusing on the major proponents of each therapeutic system while also examining mainstream evangelical psychology. The author concludes that in the majority of cases mental disorders are blamed on two main issues sin and demonic possession oppression and that as a result some communities have become a mental health underclass who are ill served or oppressed by both alternative and mainstream evangelical therapeutic systems. He argues that the only recourse left for mentally ill female and LGBT evangelicals is to rally for reform and increased accountability for both professional and alternative evangelical practitioners.

Book 3 Authority HC Kurt Jurgensmeier, 2012-08-22

Is Scripture really our ultimate authority? Most Christians answer this question by simply saying The Bible is my final authority. But as we explain here such a view forgets that there is a human being between us and the Bible which is why there are a multitude of interpretations of the Bible that people live by. Reformed theologians in particular have claimed that a testimony of the Spirit or some sort of an additional revelation of the Spirit confirms to us what is true. But again we can demonstrate that there is no biblical or practical support for this. Accordingly we are back to our God given reason and the right and responsibility of private judgment as our ultimate subjective authority by which we live by. Postmoderns are right then to assert that our own reason is the god we live by But they are wrong to ignore that our ultimate objective authority is God Who our reasoning will be judged by Theophostic Prayer Ministry Edward M.
