Thesis Statement	Thesis is extremely clear and reflects in-depth understanding of the subject.	Thesis is clear and reflects clear understanding of the topic.	Thesis expresses a clear and coherent idea.
	Thesis clearly shows the relationship between main ideas and the writer's opinion about the subject, and gives the paper strong structural direction.	Thesis shows the relationship between main ideas and the writer's opinion about the subject, and establishes general structure of the paper.	Thesis is overly general; does not establish the relationship between main ideas and the writer's opinion about the subject.
	The specific subject of the paper is extremely clear and expressed in a sophisticated manner.	The specific subject of the paper is clearly expressed.	The subject of the paper is too general.
	The writer expresses a sophisticated and in-depth opinion about the subject; what the writer will prove about the subject is extremely clear.	The writer expresses an in-depth opinion about the subject; what will be proven about the subject is clear.	The writer expresses an opinion about the subject.
	Thesis is written as a clear, complex, focused and correct sentence.	Thesis is grammatically correct, but is phrased awkwardly; perhaps uses a semicolon to join together ideas.	Thesis contains some minor grammatical errors.
Outline	The major points of the paper are definitely and precisely articulated.	The major points of the paper are clearly stated.	Not all the major points of the paper are clearly stated.
	Every major point clearly and effectively elaborates a part of the thesis.	All major points relate directly to the thesis.	Most major points relate to the thesis.
	Major points clearly and effectively sync with all ideas included in the thesis.	All ideas outlined in the thesis are included in major points.	One small part of the thesis has no elaboration under the major points.
	Each major point has a wealth of details/examples to support it.	Each major point has enough examples/details to support it.	Most major points have enough examples/details to support them.
	Supporting examples/details are clear, sophisticated, and insightfully chosen; reveal in-depth understanding of the topic.	All examples/details are directly related to the major point they support; reveal a solid understanding of the topic.	Most examples/details are clearly related to the major point they support; demonstrate only a basic understanding of the topic.
	Argument is extremely clear and logical; organization of ideas is very effective.	Argument is clear and logical; organization of ideas is effective.	Argument is sometimes unclear or illogical.
	The MLA outline format makes it extremely easy to see the relationships between ideas and supporting information.	The MLA outline format shows the relationships between ideas and supporting information.	The outline format is occasionally unclear or inappropriate; does not always clearly show the relationships between ideas and supporting information.
	All examples/details include a citation of the source of the information.	Most examples/details include a citation of the source of the information.	Some examples/details include a citation of the source of the information.
