Understanding Things Fall Apart Kalu Ogbaa, 1999-01-30 Things Fall Apart is the most widely read and influential African novel. Published in 1958, it has sold more than eight million copies and been translated into fifty languages. African culture is not familiar to most American readers, however, and this casebook provides a wealth of commentary and original materials that place the novel in its historical, social, and cultural contexts. Ogbaa, an Igbo scholar, has selected a wide variety of historical and firsthand accounts of Igbo history and cultural heritage. These accounts illuminate the historical context and issues relating to the colonization of Africa by European powers, in particular Britain's colonization of Nigeria. Fascinating materials bring to light the novel's cultural context, folkways, language, and narrative customs, and traditional Igbo religion. Among the documents included are a slave narrative, interviews, journal, and magazine articles, and historical essays. Each chapter is followed by questions for class discussion and ideas for student paper topics. A selection of maps and photos of Igbo culture complement the text. Following a literary analysis, historical documents trace the European powers' partition of Africa and the creation and colonization of Nigeria, home of the Igbo people. Several chapters on Igbo cultural harmony feature materials that explain the Igbo view of the world of humans and the world of the spirits, Igbo language, and traditional Igbo religion and material customs. Selections on the African novelists place Things Fall Apart in the context of African literature and emphasize the difference between African and Western elements of fiction. A concluding chapter examines the debate on writing African novels in ex-colonizers' languages. This casebook will greatly enhance the reader's appreciation of the novel and understanding of Igbo history, society, culture, and civilization. CliffsNotes on Achebe's Things Fall Apart John Chua, 2011-05-18 The original CliffsNotes study guides offer expert commentary on major themes, plots, characters, literary devices, and historical background. The latest generation of titles in this series also feature glossaries and visual elements that complement the classic, familiar format. In CliffsNotes on Things Fall Apart, you explore the groundbreaking work of author Chinua Achebe, considered by many to be the most influential African writer of his generation. The novel, amazing in its authenticity, leaves behind the stereotypical portrayals of African life and presents the Igbo culture of Nigeria in all its remarkable complexity. Chapter summaries and commentaries take you through Achebe's world, and critical essays give you insight into the novel's themes and use of language. Other features that help you study include character analyses of the main characters, a character map that graphically illustrates the relationships among the characters, a section on the life and background of Chinua Achebe, a review section that tests your knowledge, a Resource Center full of books, articles, films, and Internet sites. Classic literature or modern, modern-day treasure, you'll understand it all with expert information and insight from CliffsNotes study guides. Decolonizing Language and Other Revolutionary Ideas Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 2025-05-06 A Literary Hub Most Anticipated Book Brilliant thoughts on modern African literature and postcolonial literary criticism from one of the giants of contemporary letters One of the greatest writers of our time Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Ng g wa Thiong o is a towering figure in African literature and his novels A Grain of Wheat Weep Not Child and Petals of Blood are modern classics Emerging from a literary scene that flourished in the 1950s and 60s during the last years of colonialism in Africa he is now known not just as a novelist one who in the late 70s famously stopped writing novels in English and turned to the language he grew up speaking G k y but as a major postcolonial theorist In Decolonizing Language and Other Revolutionary Ideas Ng g gives us a series of essays that build on the revolutionary ideas about language and its constructive role in national culture history and identity that he set out in his earlier work In a book that is intricate nuanced and accessible he reaffirms the power of African languages to fight back against both the psychic and material impacts of colonialism past and present Decolonizing Language and Other Revolutionary Ideas also explores these themes through chapters on some of Ng g s contemporaries including Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka A book with immense relevance to our present moment Decolonizing Language and Other Revolutionary Ideas works both as a wonderful introduction to the enduring themes of Ng g s work as well as a vital addition to the library of the world s greatest and most provocative living writers

The African Novel of Ideas Jeanne-Marie Jackson, 2021-01-12 An ambitious look at the African novel and its connections to African philosophy in the twentieth and twenty first centuries The African Novel of Ideas focuses on the role of the philosophical novel and the place of philosophy more broadly in the intellectual life of the African continent from the early twentieth century to today Examining works from the Gold Coast South Africa Uganda and Zimbabwe and tracing how such writers as J E Casely Hayford Imraan Coovadia Tendai Huchu Jennifer Nansubuga Makumbi and Stanlake Samkange reconcile deep contemplation with their social situations Jeanne Marie Jackson offers a new way of reading and understanding African literature Jackson begins with Fante anticolonial worldliness in prenationalist Ghana moves through efforts to systematize Shona philosophy in 1970s Zimbabwe looks at the Ugandan novel Kintu as a treatise on pluralistic rationality and arrives at the treatment of philosophical suicide by current southern African writers As Jackson charts philosophy s evolution from a dominant to marginal presence in African literary discourse across the past hundred years she assesses the push and pull of subjective experience and abstract thought The first major transnational exploration of African literature in conversation with philosophy The African Novel of Ideas redefines the place of the African experience within literary history

Towards a Poetics of Creative Writing Dominique Hecq, 2015 This book offers an in depth study of the poetics of creative writing as a subject in the dramatically changing context of practice as research taking into account the importance of the subjectivity of the writer as researcher It explores creative writing and theory while offering critical antecedents theoretical directions and creative interchanges The book narrows the focus on psychoanalysis particularly with regard to Lacan and creative practice and demonstrates that creative writing is research in its own right The poetics at stake neither denotes the study or the techniques of poetry but rather the means by which writers formulate and discuss attitudes to their work

Philosophical Issues in Psychiatry II Kenneth S. Kendler, Josef Parnas, 2012-04-19 Psychiatry has long struggled with the nature of its diagnoses This book brings together established experts in the wide range of disciplines that have an interest in psychiatric nosology The contributors include philosophers psychologists psychiatrists historians and representatives of the efforts of DSM III DSM IV and DSM V

Navigating Boundaries: A Comprehensive Study of Postcolonial Theory and Literature, 2025-02-25 Navigating Boundaries A Comprehensive Study of Postcolonial Theory and Literature delves into the intricate area of postcolonial discourse amplifying the voices emerging from the margins challenging dominant narratives while exploring the themes of identity mimicry hybridity power and resistance Drawing from key theorists such as Edward Said Homi K Bhabha Frantz Fanon Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Philip G Altbach Deepesh Chakravarthy Chandra Talpade Mohanty Gauri Viswanathan etc this book offers a deep investigation into the multiple aspects of theoretical frameworks that shape postcolonial discourse The analysis moves seamlessly from theory to literature investigating how postcolonial literary texts navigate critical issues such as hybridity mimicry identity and resistance A vital resource for students research scholars teachers and anyone curious about the dynamic field of postcolonial theory and literature this book calls readers to reflect question and join the discourse on the complex narratives that continue to shape our world Generally most of the postcolonial critiques explore linguistic imperialism but this book makes a groundbreaking contribution by foregrounding the use of vernacular languages in literary texts and critical theory positing that this is not just an aesthetic choice but a form of resistance and identity reclamation In doing so it echoes Ng g wa Thiong o s call for linguistic decolonization and applies it in a broader more diverse context examining how the act of writing in local languages disrupts colonial power dynamics and fosters cultural preservation While much of postcolonial criticism tends to centre on broad historical and political analysis Navigating Boundaries emphasizes the multiple voices coming from Africa Caribbean and South Asia offering a more intimate look at identity formation in postcolonial settings Moreover the book s interdisciplinary approach strengthens its position in the field By weaving in cultural studies sociology and psychological perspectives on gender trauma ethnicity and memory it opens up fresh pathways making the work relevant not just for literary scholars but for those interested in a wider discourse on postcolonial theory

Issues in African Literature E. Nnolim, 2010-12-01 The multitudinous nature of African literature has always been an issue but really not a problem although its oral base has been used by expatriate critics to accuse African literature of thin plots superficial characterisation and narrative structures African literature also it is observed is a mixed grill it is oral it is written in vernacular or tribal tongues written in foreign tongues English French Portuguese and within the foreign language in which it is written pidgin and creole further bend the already bent language giving African literature a further taint of linguistic impurity African literature further suffers from the nature of its newness and this created problems for the critic Because it is new and because its critics are in simultaneous existence with its writers we confront the problem of instant analysis Issues in African Literature continues the debate and tries to clarify contemporary burning issues in African literature by focussing on particular areas where the debate has been most concerned or around which it has hovered and been persistent
