Strawn, 2021-12-07 Old Testament scholar and interpreter Brent A Strawn focuses on the importance of honesty in preaching especially around three challenging Old Testament themes sin suffering and violence He makes the case that preaching honestly is critical in the church today Without honesty regarding these topics there is no way forward to reconciliation health and recovery Further it is imperative for today s preachers to deal with the questions of faith arising from these themes in the biblical text itself In addition to key scripture passages he turns to several contemporary authors and works as dialogue partners on the three themes Asserting that keeping secrets can lead to a kind of sickness Strawn uses texts from the Pentateuch and the Psalms to model honesty about sin without which there can be no reconciliation and honesty about suffering without which there can be no healing He also looks at the book of Joshua and various psalms to model honesty about violence which can serve as a way to contain limit and ultimately transcend violence Strawn frames these themes specifically for working preachers so they can create sermons that speak to these thorny themes with depth and clarity

Stories of the Self Anna Poletti,2020-08-25 The importance of personal storytelling in contemporary culture and politics In an age where our experiences are processed and filtered through a wide variety of mediums both digital and physical how do we tell our own story How do we get a life make sense of who we are and the way we live and communicate that to others Stories of the Self takes the literary study of autobiography and opens it up to a broad and fascinating range of material practices beyond the book investigating the manifold ways people are documenting themselves in contemporary culture Anna Poletti explores Andy Warhol s Time Capsules a collection of six hundred cardboard boxes filled with text objects from the artist s everyday life the mid aughts crowdsourced digital archive PostSecret queer zine culture and its practices of remixing and collaging and the bureaucratic processes surrounding surveillance dossiers Stories of the Self argues that while there is a strong emphasis on the importance of personal storytelling in contemporary culture and politics mediation is just as important in establishing the credibility and legibility of life writing Poletti argues that the very media used for writing our lives intrinsically shapes how we are seen to matter Blogging Heroes Michael A. Once Upon a Time in the Twenty-First Century Robin Behn, 2020-12-01 Fun and innovative exercises and prompts for creative writing students Once Upon a Time in the Twenty First Century Unexpected Exercises in Creative Writing is a unique creative writing text that will appeal to a wide range of readers and writers from grade nine through college and beyond Successful creative writers from numerous genres constructed these exercises including poetry fiction and creative nonfiction to one act plays song lyrics genre fiction travel guides comics and beyond The exercises use a broad range of creative approaches aesthetics and voices all with an emphasis on demystifying the writing process and having fun Editor Robin Behn has divided the book into three writing sections Genres and Forms Sources and Methods and Style and Subject In each section Behn offers a brief introduction which explains how to get started and specific ways to develop one's writing

Each introduction is followed by extensive exercises that draw on literature from classic to contemporary as well as other art forms and popular culture. Examples range from Flannery O'Connor and Langston Hughes to Allen Ginsberg and Gertrude Stein from Jamaica Kincaid and James Joyce to Arlo Guthrie and Harryette Mullen. Integrated within the exercises are apt examples of student writings that have emerged from actual use of the exercises in both the classroom and in writing groups. The book concludes with general advice and direction on how to get published. Based on years of hands-on experiences in the teaching of creative writing in high schools, colleges, and after-school writing clubs, this volume of exercises offers inestimable value to students and teachers in the traditional classroom as well as a growing number of homeschoolers, those who are part of a writing club or group, and independent writers and learners of all ages.

The Third Spaces of Digital Religion Nabil Echchaibi, Stewart M. Hoover, 2023-03-02. This exciting volume explores how religious meaning is generated and performed in our present digital media ecosystem. It uses the spatial metaphor of a third space to visualize the mobility of everyday religion and to explore the dynamic ways in which contemporary subjects imagine, produce, and navigate new religious and spiritual places. Comprised of seven original essays, this book provides a rigorous discussion of the complex intersections of the digital and religion, demonstrating how third spaces of religion stand out by virtue of their in-betweenness. They exist between private and public, between institution and individual, between authority and individual autonomy, between large media framings and individual presumption, and between local and translocal. Including probing analysis of how Muslim, Catholic, and Neo-Pagan identities are cultivated and developed online, case studies reflect on the creative outcomes of this condition of in-betweenness and the emergence of other places of religious and spiritual meaning. Blending theoretical analysis with grounded empirical research, this book is essential reading for students and scholars of contemporary religion, media, and religion sociology of religion, religion, and popular culture.
