January 1892 in The New England Magazine It is regarded as an important early work of American feminist literature illustrating attitudes in the 19th century toward women s health both physical and mental Presented in the first person the story is a collection of journal entries written by a woman whose physician husband John has rented an old mansion for the summer Forgoing other rooms in the house the couple moves into the upstairs nursery As a form of treatment the unnamed woman is forbidden from working and is encouraged to eat well and get plenty of exercise and air so she can recuperate from what he calls a temporary nervous depression a slight hysterical tendency a diagnosis common to women in that period She hides her journal from her husband and his sister the housekeeper fearful of being reproached for overworking herself The room s windows are barred to prevent children from climbing through them and there is a gate across the top of the stairs though she and her husband have access to the rest of the house and its adjoining estate The Yellow Wallpaper Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2019-04-30 The Yellow Wallpaper was originally published in January 1892 as a short story in The New England Magazine and later went on to reach audiences everywhere as one of the earliest and most important works of feminist literature It explored the issues of mental health and physical health of women in the 19th century Classics for Today aims to offer a traditional reading experience heightened with original artwork and photographs pertaining to the book You also get an updated cover for both ebook or paperback versions Great for students and readers who enjoy a new take on their favorites The Yellow Wallpaper Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2018-04-06 The Yellow Wallpaper original title The Yellow Wall paper A Story is a 6 000 word short story by American writer Charlotte Perkins Gilman first published in January 1892 It is regarded as an important early work of American feminist literature illustrating attitudes in the 19th century toward women s health both physical and mental Charlotte Perkins Gilman 1860 1935 was a prominent American feminist sociologist novelist writer of short stories poetry and nonfiction and a lecturer for social reform She was a utopian feminist and served as a role model for future generations of feminists because of her unorthodox concepts and lifestyle Her best remembered work today is her semi autobiographical short story The Yellow Wallpaper which she wrote after a severe bout of postpartum psychosis The Yellow Wallpaper Unique Annotated Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2020-10-10 How is this book unique Font adjustments a diagnosis common to women in that period The windows of the room are barred and there is a gate across the top of the stairs allowing her husband to control her access to the rest of the house The story illustrates the effect of confinement on the narrator s mental health and her descent into psychosis With nothing to stimulate her she becomes obsessed by the pattern and color of the room s wallpaper The Yellow Wallpaper Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2017-03-10 Although it was not the first or longest of her works without question Gilman s most famous piece is her short story The Yellow Wallpaper which became a best seller of the Feminist Press She wrote it on June 6 and 7 1890 in her home of Pasadena and it was printed a year and a half later in the January 1892 issue of The New England Magazine Since its original printing it has been anthologized in numerous collections of women s literature American literature and textbooks

though not always in its original form For instance many textbooks omit the phrase in marriage from a very important line in the beginning of story John laughs at me of course but one expects that in marriage The reason for this omission is a mystery as Gilman s views on marriage are made clear throughout the story The Yellow Wallpaper Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2025-08-19 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Yellow Wallpaper Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2023-07-18 The Yellow Wallpaper Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2021-05-03 The Yellow Wallpaper is a short story by Charlotte Perkins Gilman published 1892 in The New England Magazine The Yellow Wallpaper Illustrated Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2021-08-20 The Yellow Wallpaper is a short story by American writer Charlotte Perkins Gilman first published in January 1892 in The New England Magazine 1 It is regarded as an important early work of American feminist literature due to its illustration of the attitudes towards mental and physical health of women in the 19th century Narrated in the first person the story is a collection of journal entries written by a woman whose physician husband John has rented an old mansion for the summer Forgoing other rooms in the house the couple moves into the upstairs nursery As a form of treatment the unnamed woman is forbidden from working and is encouraged to eat well and get plenty of air so she can recuperate from what he calls a temporary nervous depression a slight hysterical tendency a diagnosis common to women during that period The Yellow Wallpaper and Selected Stories Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2019-09-18 It is very seldom that mere ordinary people like John and myself secure ancestral halls for the summer A colonial mansion a hereditary estate I would say a haunted house and reach the height of romantic felicity but that would be asking too much of fate Still I will proudly declare that there is something queer about it Else why should it be let so cheaply And why have stood so long untenanted John laughs at me of course but one expects that in marriage John is practical in the extreme He has no patience with faith an intense horror of superstition and he scoffs openly at any talk of things not to be felt and seen and put down in figures John is a physician and perhaps I would not say it to a living soul of course but this is dead paper and a great relief to my mind perhaps that is one reason I do not get well faster You see he does not believe I am sick And what can one do If a physician of high standing and one s own husband assures friends and relatives that there is really nothing the matter with one but temporary nervous depression a slight hysterical tendency what is one to do My brother is also a physician and also of high standing and he says the same thing So I take phosphates or phosphites whichever it is and tonics and journeys and air and exercise and am absolutely forbidden to work until I am well again Personally I disagree with their ideas Personally I believe that congenial work with excitement and change would do me good But what is one to do I did write for a while in spite of them but it does exhaust me a good deal having to be so sly about it or else meet with heavy opposition I sometimes fancy that in my condition if I had less opposition and more society and stimulus but John says the very worst thing I can do is to think about my condition and I confess it always makes me feel bad So I will let it alone and talk about the house The most beautiful place It is quite alone standing well back from the road quite three miles from the village It makes me think of English places that you read about for there are hedges and walls and gates that lock and lots of separate little houses for the gardeners and people There is a delicious garden I never saw such a garden large and shady full of box bordered paths and lined with long grape covered arbors with seats under them Taken from The Yellow Wallpaper written by Charlotte Perkins Gilman

The Yellow Wallpaper - A Stylistic Analysis Robert Kampf, 2010-04-21 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 3.0 University of Münster Englisches Seminar language English abstract The task will be to examine the given extract in terms of style narration and possible meaning emerging from the text and its mostly foregrounded elements Further ambitions are to analyze how Gilman uses autobiographical elements for an implied authorship and to discuss the problem of interpretation This question arises automatically when dealing only with extracts from therefore not complete texts and will be deepened in the concluding chapter Reconsideration
