

The Things They Carried questions & answers

1. Discuss the significance of the full title on the title page and of the publication history of the stories in the book shown on the back side of the title page. What kind of book is it and how was it written? Why? Explain the importance of the dedication.

Title page: The Things They Carried: a work of fiction by Tim O'Brien. The stories perhaps aren't true...or maybe parts aren't ...or maybe all are but he's not claiming so.

Back of the title page: it's an amalgamation of several stories he's previously had published (14) and more (22 chapters in this book).

Importance of the dedication: The book is dedicated to the men of Alpha Company and in particular—

Jimmy Cross: First Lieutenant; didn't get the girl he loved, blamed himself for the deaths of Ted Lavender and Kiowa

Norman Bowker: In 1978 he hanged himself in the locker room of a YMCA in his hometown in central Iowa

Rat Kiley: the medic; eventually "lost it" and shot himself in the foot to get out of the war; Cross vouched for him.

Mitchell Sanders: got across the idea that "for the common soldier, war has the feel—the spiritual texture—of a great ghostly fog, thick and permanent"; wouldn't harass Bobby Jorgenson.

Henry Dobbins: thought about becoming a monk (girlfriend had dumped him); "wear a robe and be nice to people"

Kiowa: Native American; dies in the field of excrement next to the Song Tra Bong River

2. Make a list of the main characters and the things they carried. What do they reveal about each soldier? Why is weight emphasized and what are the non-tangibles? Which item was most surprising? Which was most evocative of war? Which items stay with you?
