Wrecked but not Ruined Six Months at the Cape Memoirs Personal Reminiscences in Book Making Calcutta Yoga
Jerome Armstrong, 2020-01-09 An often surprising and always sure footed survey of the magic of yoga and Calcutta s role in bringing it to the world JOHN ZUBRZYCKI Interweaving historical facts with Armstrong s own experiences the result is a book which is neither an autobiography nor a purely scientific work quite a unique mixture it moves me CLAUDIA GUGGENB HL I wish I was doing what he is doing in Calcutta Yoga BISHWANATH GHOSH The epic story of how Buddha Bose Bishnu Ghosh and Yogananda took yoga from Calcutta to the rest of the world In Calcutta Yoga Jerome Armstrong deftly weaves the multi generational story of the first family of yoga and how they modernized the ancient practice The saga covers four generations the making of a city personal friendships and shines light on the remarkable people who transformed yoga and made it a truly global phenomenon Along the way we also meet the people who founded the schools of yoga that are so well known today Enriching the cast of characters are the internationally renowned B K S Iyengar Mr Universe Monotosh Roy even as the book uncovers the truth about Bikram Choudhury the founder of Bikram Yoga We follow them and others from the streets of Calcutta to the United States London Tokyo and beyond where they perform astounding feats and help revise Western perceptions of yoga Cleverly researched and enjoyably anecdotal Calcutta Yoga gives a holistic picture of the evolution of yoga and pays homage to yogic heroes previously lost from history while highlighting the pivotal early role the city of Calcutta played in redefining the practice A culmination of rigorous fieldwork and numerous interviews this book is as much about yoga as it is about history relationships and human nature Sonorous Desert Kim Haines-Eitzen, 2024-04-16 Deserts have a long religious history Think of the biblical stories of the ancient Israelites migrating through deserts after they had been freed from slavery in Egypt and the stories from the New Testament of Jesus being tempted in the desert Early Christian monks and hermits were deeply influenced by such stories drawing from them the lesson that the desert is an important place It s the place to which one flees the cacophony and distractions of the marketplace and town square in order to hear and contemplate the voice of God in solitude Of course the practice of withdrawal was a Graeco Roman ideal as well as a biblical one and some early monks were surely influenced by pre Christian philosophical ideas about the power of solitude too Alone or in monastic communities which paradoxically blended the communal and the solitary monks found something surprising in the harsh desert environment while they went there in search of silence they found that the desert too is rich with sound which one can appreciate if one pays attention One has to learn to listen to the subtle natural sounds of the desert in order to become quiet and still enough to listen with the ear of the heart in the words of the sixth century AD monk Benedict of Nursia Kim Haines Eitzen has written a book about the sayings anecdotes and stories of these desert monks based on her reading of a wide range of texts written in Greek Coptic and Latin between the third and seventh centuries including letters treatises and philosophical and practical instructions for monastic life This material speaks to the interdependence between humans and other animals and between humans and the environment The author highlights the ways in which monks wrestled with the sounds of the desert and how they used these to cultivate a quality of inner listening She invites her readers to reflect with her on what we might learn about our own world from their experience and stories how in the midst of our cacophonous surroundings we might cultivate a sense of inner quietude And how we might grapple with the tensions that those early monks also felt between the pulls of solitude and community Accompanying this book are a set of audio recordings the author made in desert environments
