Transforming Unequal Gender Relations in India and Beyond Saroj Pachauri,Ravi K. Verma,2023-09-08 This book offers a unique intersectional perspective on gender equality SDG5 It presents an intersection of gender with caste class region ethnic and sexual identities and other structural drivers of inequalities in various development sectors It presents case studies and empirical findings from development practice and policymaking and highlights the challenges to implementing

SDG5 in practice It discusses policies to promote gender equality and prevent violence against women and girls and women in decision making and leadership positions The chapters reinstate that gender equality is possible only if unequal gender norms are transformed to recognize women and girls as independent economic entities and not merely homemakers providing unpaid care It also analyzes to deconstruct the idea of monolithic masculinity to recognize gender diversity and men s role in providing care The book shows how much has been achieved yet how far is also left to go It is an essential reference point for researchers policymakers students and scholars across gender studies women s studies and sociology
