Respect In Sepedi:

Fanie Fourie's Lobola Nape 'a Motana, 2014-08-01 Fanie Fourie is a true blue boere seun with an unrepentantly macho approach to love and life in general But his world view undergoes an abrupt reinvention when he is bitten by the louse and bedbug of love and falls head over heels for Dimakatjo Machabaphala a beautiful black nurse In pursuit of true love these lovers must steer a path through the challenging intricacies of inter cultural negotiation and leap the hurdles of racial bigotry tenacious former lovers and the like finally to emerge triumphant as traditionally united man and wife This delightful novel is filled with naughty humor and ironic reversals of stereotype With a deft and humorous pen the author evokes the colliding worlds of traditional and contemporary culture in a South Africa still struggling to renegotiate roles and relationships and shake off the complexes and prejudices of the past

Languages of Instruction for African Emancipation Birgit Brock-Utne, Rodney Kofi Hopson, 2005 Languages of Instruction for African Emancipation is a collection of case studies from seven African countries poses questions such as What alternatives are there for educational language policies towards African emancipation What efforts have governments made to change the language policy in favour of African languages and how far have they succeeded What challenges do African learners face when it comes to current language of instruction policies The authors reject a language education policy that neglects the multilingualism existing in Africa that reinforces patterns of privilege that existed in the colonial era further entrenching the schism between the elite and the masses They give short shrift to the new justification of the unjustifiable status accorded to English in Africa as the language of globalisation suggesting that it is not relevant to the vast majority of African lives and their human development The sum of thoughts presented suggests that the answer to the language question provides the key to development challenges and further emancipation of the African peoples which it is argued is at the same time a question that will determine whether Africa will remain a recognisable and distinctive cultural component of humanity or whether Africans will cease to exist culturally as Africans members of legislatures treaty monitoring bodies dealing with human rights on the African continent The main objective is to contribute towards the development of an indigenous African human rights jurisprudence an essential precondition for the greater realisation of human rights norms in Africa Sesotho Language David Ambrose,2006 Contract Law in South Africa Louis F. van Huyssteen,Catherine J.
