

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The United States of America was founded on the 4th of July, 1776. It is a country of many states, each with its own government, but all united under one national government. The first President was George Washington. The country has grown from a small colony to a large, powerful nation. It has many cities, towns, and villages. It has many people of different races and religions. It has many mountains, rivers, and lakes. It has many beautiful views. It has many interesting things to see and do. It is a great country to live in.
