

Essay Resubmission Form

DIGITAL OR PAPER FORM!
GREAT FOR DISTANCE LEARNING!

A clipboard with a yellow folder and a white form titled "Essay Revisions / Re-Submission Form". The form is placed on a desk with various school supplies like pens, pencils, and paper clips. The form contains fields for student name, class period, essay assignment name, and original score. It also includes a paragraph explaining the purpose of the form and a list of 15 criteria for evaluating the student's revision. The criteria are organized into two columns. The first column lists criteria 1 through 10, and the second column lists criteria 11 through 15. Each criterion is a bullet point describing a specific aspect of the essay that the student should improve upon. At the bottom of the form, there is a line for the student's signature and date.

In addition, you will have a printed copy of your essay score that was originally submitted and a copy of the grading rubric used for the grade. These assignments have the teacher's feedback for revision (see below). (Questions about these assignments and criteria can be found in the feedback, highlighting and other notes on rubric.) These criteria include completed before, on time, or late, after which is during the student's own time. Some feedback is included in the score for class, and other work has been completed by the student.
