international perspectives on interreligious dialogue with a particular focus on how this can be found or understood within biblical texts The volume is in four parts covering both the Old and New Testaments and related Greco Roman texts as well as the history of reception and issues of hermeneutics Issues of the relationships between religious cultures are assessed both in antiquity and modernity In Part 1 Old Testament contributions range from the discussion of the bible and plurality of theologies in church life Erhard Gerstenberger to the challenge of multi culturalism Cornelis Van Dam Part 2 New Testament and Greco Roman Texts considers such things as Pagan Jewish and Christian historiography Armin Baum and the different beliefs it is possible to discern in the Ephesian community Tor Vegge Part 3 provides issues from the history of reception including the role of Jesus in Islam Craig A Evans The volume is completed by a hermeneutical reflection by Jo e Kra ovec which draws the threads of dialogue together and questions how we can best examine the bible in a modern international multicultural society At-Home Seminary Rich O'Brien, 2025-07-15 My goal upon entering Moody's MABS program was then as it is now to know God better and to love Him more Before completing the program I began praying to know what God had in mind for me next While praying I realized that some if not much of the biblical knowledge I had recently gained would likely slip from my mind if I did not take steps to prevent that I was then led to compile my written assignments into a well organized anthology As I prayerfully worked on that project I realized that the finished product could well serve as a Christian discipleship or small group study That led me to prayerfully consider making the project available to everyone Now along with WestBow Press I am blessed to invite you to embark on a journey through your own At Home Seminary
