working with men who have been violent towards intimate partners As such this monograph aims to contribute to a gap in knowledge and understanding within an important social and criminal justice topic The book is underpinned by research based on participant observation at domestic abuse groups allowing for direct observation of behaviours and interactions including gestures and emotional responses as well as semi structured interviews with group facilitators and participants It also draws on the author s experience of working with domestically abusive men as a probation officer and facilitator of domestic abuse programmes He argues that groups involve a micro social order involving rules and rituals These are continuously constructed and negotiated by participants against a backdrop of ideas about masculinity and involve the performance of gendered roles Understanding the perspectives of these men as well the interactional rules rituals and dynamics of programmes enables facilitators to navigate the hostility that men display and engage them in a process of change Attention to these considerations has implications for the effectiveness of group based interventions in reducing violence against intimate partners and the training of those who deliver programmes More general extrapolations are also drawn about contemporary understandings of gender masculinity identity and effective communication within groups This book will be of value to undergraduate and postgraduate students with interests in domestic violence gender probation and the rituals of social interactions It will also be useful to academics researchers and policymakers wishing to explore and develop approaches to work with domestically violent men
