Intelligent Techniques in E-Commerce

Zhaohao Sun, Gavin R. Finnie, 2013-03-20 E commerce has passed through a number of stages in the minds of most readers of the daily press Initially it was the province of the specialist and considered almost irrelevant to the needs and activities of everyday life companies looking for venture capital in this area had little if any chance of obtaining sufficient funds from the rather conservative investors who provided the only source of start up capital Then came the dot com boom and suddenly e commerce was the most exciting topic possible Venture capital was available from every possible source and almost any company with a com in its name could be assured of instant funding on request This boom was inevitably followed by the dot com bust and the press waned that the days of e commerce were gone perhaps never to return This apparently confusing stages of growth model is in reality nothing of the sort E commerce is simply the logical outcome of combining computers with tele communications networks The astonishing changes which a global economy has brought with it are reflected in the changes to the way we do business which are increasingly synonymous with e commerce Indeed the term e commerce itself is coming to mean only the transaction based component of e business any process that a business organisation conducts over a computer mediated network as Thomas Mesenbourg of the U S Census Bureau said in 1999 Not Done Yet :: adult college students • a non-traditional journey Joseph Neumayer, 2009-08-21 Commonwealth Public Administration Reform 2004 Commonwealth Secretariat, 2003 Commonwealth Public Administration Reform is a comprehensive resource for all those in public and private sectors and civil society who are engaged in reforming public administration It includes in one volume the principal documents of major reform initiatives in the Commonwealth Secretariat and the Commonwealth Association for Public Administration and Management It draws on the richly diverse experience of the association's 54 member countries large and small developing and industrialised The 2004 edition brings together the knowledge and experience of leading experts from around the Commonwealth and covers Reform strategies Democracy and Security Public Private Partnerships Human Resources Management Information Systems Education and Leadership
