Conscription in the Napoleonic Era Donald Stoker, Frederick C. Schneid, Harold D. Blanton, 2008-10-09 This edited volume explores conscription in the Napoleonic era tracing the roots of European conscription and exploring the many methods that states used to obtain the manpower they needed to prosecute their wars The levée en masse of the French Revolution has often been cited as a Revolution in Military Affairs but was it truly a revolutionary break with past European practices of raising armies or an intensification of the scope and scale of practices already inherent in the European military system This international collection of scholars demonstrate that European conscription has far deeper roots than has been previously acknowledged and that its intensification during the Napoleonic era was more an evolutionary than revolutionary change This book will be of much interest to students of Military History Strategic Studies Strategic History and European History Season of the Gar Mark Spitzer, 2012-07-01 Season of the Gar is a fang infested monster headed armor plated romp through the prehistoric swamps and murky rivers of America's most feared and demonized fish Follow Mark Spitzer on his lengthy and often frustrating quest from Texas and Louisiana Missouri and Arkansas to catch his own gar Read about his sometimes bizarre angling adventures in search of this air breathing freshwater giant up to ten feet in length and well over three hundred pounds as he separates fact from fiction Spitzer draws on folklore science history his own pet gar and even gar recipes to tell this unique and exciting literary eco tale about a fish that has inspired imaginations for centuries a fish many have hated a fish many have thrown on the shore to die Billboard, 2000-07-01 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Billboard, 2004-11-27 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The House That Trane Built: The Story of Impulse Records Ashley Kahn, 2007-11-17 A jazz lover's delight Ray Olson Booklist Noted jazz author Ashley Kahn brings to life the behind the scenes story of Impulse Records one of the most significant record labels in the history of popular music Kahn mingles engaging stories of corporate politics with insider accounts of music making and anecdotal takes on particular albums His history of Impulse is also the story of the genesis of an American art form and the evolution of the record industry through the tumultuous 1960s and will compel readers to seek out this label's masterful albums says Publishers Weekly in a starred review Kirkus Reviews calls the book a swinging read adding that Kahn covers all the aesthetic business social and historical

The Counterhuman Imaginary Laura S. Brown, 2023-11-15 The Counterhuman Imaginary proposes that alongside the historical social and institutional structures of human reality that seem to be the sole subject of the literary text another human world is everywhere in evidence Laura Brown finds that within eighteenth century British literature the human cultural imaginary can be seen equally as a counterhuman imaginary an alternative realm whose scope and terms exceed human understanding or order Through close readings of works by Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift and Alexander Pope along with lapdog lyrics circulation narratives that give agency to inanimate objects like coins and carriages and poetry about the Lisbon earthquake of 1755 Brown traces the ways presence and power of the nonhuman weather natural disasters animals even the concept of love not only influence human creativity subjectivity and history but are inseparable from them

Traversing literary theory animal studies new materialism ecocriticism and affect theory The Counterhuman Imaginary offers an original repudiation of the centrality of the human to advance an integrative new methodology for reading chaos fluidity force and impossibility in literary culture

The God Biographers Larry Witham, 2010-07-01 The God Biographers presents a sweeping narrative of the Western image of God since antiquity following the theme of how the old biography of God has been challenged by a new biography in the twenty first century The new biography has made its case in free will theism process thought evolutionary doctrines relational theology and open theism a story of people ideas and events that is brought up to the present in this engaging narrative Readers will meet the God biographers in the old and new camps On the one side are Job Augustine Boethius Anselm Aquinas and Calvin On the other side is a group that includes the early Unitarian and Wesleyan thinkers the process thinkers Alfred North Whitehead Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Charles Hartshorne and finally a new breed of evangelical philosophers This story looks closely at the cultural and scientific context of each age and how these shaped the images of God In the twenty first century that image is being shaped by new human experiences and the findings of science Today the debate between the old biographers and the new is playing out in the forums of modern theology courtrooms and social movements Larry Witham tells that panoramic story in an engaging narrative for specialists and general readers alike
