Tran Le Huu Nghia, Thanh Pham, Michael Tomlinson, Karen Medica, Christopher Thompson, 2020-01-30 Graduate employability is a significant concern for most higher education institutions worldwide During the last two decades universities have attempted to implement their employability agendas to support their students to enhance employment outcomes However within today's globalized labour markets employability has gone far beyond the notion of obtaining stable and permanent employment This book explores graduates experiences in developing and utilizing employability capitals for career development and success in different labour markets In the chapters the graduate contributors narrate and discuss how they negotiated their employability on the transitions across jobs occupational sectors and labour markets The chapters address key issues including how employability is understood by graduates of different disciplines at different career stages and in different contexts how they develop and utilise such capitals along with strategies to negotiate their employability and what can be done to move the higher education employability agenda forward The book presents international insights and perspectives into transitions from education to work and career development across the labour markets as well as calls for improving the graduate employability agenda It is an invaluable resource for researchers and academics university leaders policymakers and students who are concerned about graduate employability Class Act Maxine McKew, 2014-08-27

Maxine McKew makes the case for a considered examination of the transformation that's now underway in some of Australia's most challenged schools Through a series of conversations and case studies Class Act documents the precise strategies that are helping to change the culture of individual schools and to lift academic performance Class Act invites reflection on one of our most pressing national dilemmas how we replicate success across a fragmented educational system and reverse the decline in student performance School Improvement Through Performance Feedback A.J. Visscher, R. Coe, 2013-10-08

Internationally there is an increasing trend to publish and feed back information to schools and teachers on their functioning School improvement is often the central goal though accountability and the promotion of parental student school choice also play an important role Practical initiatives and research in this field have often failed to recognize the full complexity of improving schools through school performance feedback Relevant questions are for example to what extent the information fed back to schools is valued and understood by them the school performance feedback enables appropriate diagnosis and remediation to take place in schools the use of the feedback generates conflicts and tensions for teachers and administrators the features of the implementation process and school organization influence the utilization of school performance feedback systems schools do actually improve as a result of performance feedback and the feedback systems have unintended effects This book fills the gap by including a thorough conceptualization of school feedback as a performance enhancing mechanism and the prerequisites for utilizing this information in schools a typology of school performance indicators a review of the research on the impact of feeding back performance information to individuals and to organizations evidence on the process problems and impact of school performance feedback from an international variety of contexts Australia the Netherlands

United Kingdom USA and reflections on these experiences within the theoretical framework leading to recommended strategies for school improvement through performance feedback Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books,1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe
