Inequality Studies from the Global South David Francis, Imraan Valodia, Edward Webster, 2020-05-04 This book offers an innovative interdisciplinary approach to thinking about inequality and to understanding how inequality is produced and reproduced in the global South Without the safety net of the various Northern welfare states inequality in the global South is not merely a socio economic problem but an existential threat to the social contract that underpins the democratic state and society itself Only a response that is firmly grounded in the context of the global South can hope to address this problem This collection brings together scholars from across the globe with a particular focus on the global South to address broad thematic areas such as the conceptual and methodological challenges of measuring inequality the political economy of inequality in the global South inequality in work households and the labour market and inequalities in land spaces and cities The book concludes by suggesting alternatives for addressing inequality in the global South and around the world The pioneering ideas and theories put forward by this volume make it essential reading for students and researchers of global inequality across the fields of sociology economics law politics global studies and development studies The UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and its Optional Protocol Patricia Schulz, Ruth Halperin-Kaddari, Beate Rudolf, Marsha A. Freeman, 2022-12-01 This volume is the fully revised and updated version of the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol It reflects the developments during the decade following the publication of the first edition in 2012 which has also seen a notable rise in individual complaints more than 85 ten new General Recommendations and six new inquiry procedures as well as numerous statements partly in conjunction with other UN human rights bodies The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women s rights At a time when the backlash against women s human rights and the concept of gender based discrimination is increasingly challenged by governments and powerful societal actors the Commentary is an important instrument to hold all state powers to account on their international obligations under the Convention The Commentary analyses the interpretation of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol including a separate chapter on the cross cutting substantive issue of violence against women The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol individual complaints and inquiries through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention Each chapter is self contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole The book also includes an introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights as well as the most recent challenges to women s human rights worldwide Rethinking Revolution Leo Panitch, Greg Albo, 2016-12 One hundred years ago October 1917 galvanized leftists and oppressed peoples around the globe and became the lodestar for 20th century politics Today the left needs to reckon with this legacy and transcend it Social change as it was understood in the 20th century appears now to be as impossible as revolution leaving the left to rethink the relationship between capitalist crises as well as the conceptual tension between revolution and reform Populated by an array of passionate thinkers and thoughtful activists Rethinking Revolution reappraises the historical effects of the Russian revolution positive and negative on political intellectual and cultural life and looks at consequent revolutions after 1917 Change needs to be understood in relation to the distinct trajectories of radical politics in different regions But the main purpose of this Socialist Register edition one century after Red October is to look forward to what might happen next Acclaimed authors interrogate and explore compelling issues including Greg Albo New socialist strategies or detours Jodi Dean Are the multitudes communing Revolutionary agency and political forms today Adolph Reed Are racial minorities revolutionary agents Zillah Eisenstein Revolutionary feminisms today Nina Power Accelerated technology decelerated revolution David Schwartzman Beyond global warming Is solar communism possible Andrea Malm Revolution and counter revolution in an era of climate change Contextualised Critical Reflections on Academic Development Practices Teboho Pitso, 2021-04-20 This book offers insightful reflections on academic development practices The contributors engage the reader painstakingly in the dynamics of professional learning and effective teaching This volume facilitates the examination of the need for reflection that leads to professional maturity All educational institutions seek teachers who continuously search for effective strategies in improving student success The contributors uncover a variety of approaches as they evince proven suggestions The chapters are refreshing and edifying This book is essential for all teachers lecturers and trainers who want to improve their teaching practice immensely Professor Vuyisile T Msila Researcher at the Thabo Mbeki African School of Public and International Affairs University of South Africa Water Management in Megacities Cecilia Tortajada, Olli Varis, Asit K. Biswas, Jan Lundqvist, 2013-09-13 Efficient and equitable water wastewater and stormwater management for the megacities is becoming an increasingly complex task The special issue will focus on water management in its totality for megacities including their technical social economic legal institutional and environmental dimensions through a series of specially invited case studies from different megacities of the world At present around one out of two of the earth's 6.3 billion people live in urban areas Each year the world population grows by around 80 millions Practically all of this growth is urban primarily due to migration World's urban population is expected to reach 5 billion by 2030 which is nearly 2.3rd more than in 2000 and would mean that 60% of world's population will live in urban areas The case studies analysed include some of the most interesting and challenging megacities of this planet Dhaka Istanbul Jakarta Johannesburg Mexico City Riyadh and São Paulo They assess different aspects of how water is intermingled in the overall development milieu The special issue will consider the magnitudes nature and extent of the present and future challenges and how these could be met in socially re-demarcation Thembani Mkhize,2021-08-27 In 2011 the Gauteng Provincial Government proposed that Sedibeng a Category C district municipality located in the province should be restructured Although the original proposal had anticipated that this would happen after the 2016 local elections the issue remains unresolved due largely to fierce party political opposition and vociferous protests against it on the ground This Occasional Paper examines the dynamics particularities peculiarities and challenges of re demarcating the Gauteng City Region While informed by technical reasons the arguments for and against the merger have tended to gravitate more towards party political rationales for why the re demarcation should or should not go ahead Although these debates raise important merits and demerits for the proposal they are difficult to disentangle from the interests of those whose fortunes would be changed by restructuring In this environment municipal demarcation risks being held hostage by party politics with stakeholders such as political parties using any means at their disposal to have things go their way including by scapegoating the Municipal Demarcation Board MDB The case of Sedibeng presents important lessons about attempts to make post transition local government and mechanisms for determining its configuration work for Gauteng It also highlights the need for strengthening and revising demarcation related legislation How can we make sure that the MDB functions effectively with respect to its primary goals Labour

Law in the Netherlands Antoine T.J.M. Jacobs,2020-05-21 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this monograph on the Netherlands not only describes and analyses the legal aspects of labour relations but also examines labour relations practices and developing trends It provides a survey of the subject that is both usefully brief and sufficiently detailed to answer most questions likely to arise in any pertinent legal setting Both individual and collective labour relations are covered in ample detail with attention to such underlying and pervasive factors as employment contracts suspension of the contracts dismissal laws and covenant of non competition as well as international private law The author describes all important details of the law governing hours and wages benefits intellectual property implications trade union activity employers associations workers participation collective bargaining industrial disputes and much more Building on a clear overview of labour law and labour relations the book offers practical guidance on which sound preliminary decisions may be based It will find a ready readership among lawyers representing parties with interests in the Netherlands and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative trends in laws affecting labour and labour relations Large Meteorite Impacts and Planetary Evolution VI Wolf Uwe Reimold,Christian Koeberl,2021-09-23 This volume contains a sizable suite of contributions dealing with regional impact records Australia Sweden impact craters and impactites early Archean impacts and geophysical characteristics of impact structures shock metamorphic investigations post impact hydrothermalism and structural geology and morphometry of impact structures on Earth and Mars Proceedings of 9th Edition of International Conference on BIOFUELS AND BIOENERGY 2018

Forging Solidarity Astrid von Kotze,Shirley Walters,2017-04-13 Animating this book is a twofold question In what ways are adult and popular educators responding to various harsh economic political cultural and environmental conditions In doing so are they planting seeds of hope for and imaginings of alternative futures which can connect individuals and communities locally and globally to achieve economic ecological and social justice The book illustrates how transformative politics of solidarity often involve actors across vastly different backgrounds Solidarity is therefore a political relationship that is forged through particular struggles situated in place and time across power differentials The authors put popular education to work by describing and analysing their strategies and approaches They do so using accessible language and engaging styles Popular education is a medium for dreaming for imagining other futures It is also essential for countering the wilful spreading of fake news and propagation of ignorance Pedagogies of solidarity are necessary to building connections amongst people at a time when competitive individualism and alienation are rampant Forging solidarity with and amongst communities is a means towards that end and indeed an end in itself Corporate mines and agribusiness poison the water we drink the air we breathe and the food we eat Together with their political proxies they destroy the earth and her peoples too many are killed because of their military economic religious and information wars How do we stand up for ourselves and the earth that nourishes us against this global system Forging Solidarity shares inspiring stories that feed our deep connection and power Preys Govender Author of Love and Courage A Story of Insubordination Forging Solidarity is a critical and timely collective intervention that ponders prods pokes and plays in the most generative ways In so doing it invites us to continue deepening our engagements with questions of responsibility and justice in relation to education everywhere Richa Nagar author of Muddying the Waters Co authoring Feminisms across Scholarship and Activism This book inspires people to realize that not fighting against socio economic injustices is to side with oppressors Ntombi Nyathi Programme Director of Training for Transformation Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders,Peter Limb,2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

The Future of Management Education Stéphanie Dameron, Thomas Durand, 2017-11-15 This book discusses the challenges facing business schools and management education systems around the world Based on documented descriptions of institutional and competitive dynamics in the industry of management education the authors show how management education is going through major changes such as new governance and business models mergers and acquisitions internationalisation of faculty and students coexisting with entrenchment in local markets ever more needs for financial resources development of distant and blended learning and increasing pressure for research output to boost rankings With concerns surrounding the sustainability of current trends in faculty salary inflation social acceptability of higher fees cost of distance learning and the risk of an academic industry divide around knowledge produced by management research The Future of Management Education develops an analysis of business models and discusses strategic implications for stakeholders The second volume extends the discussion to a total of 23 countries to bring a genuinely global perspective and move away from the Euro centric outlook The countries covered in the second volume include China Brazil Russia Singapore and France

Non-Western Identity Byron G. Adams, Fons J. R. van de Vijver, 2022-02-02 Identity is a construct strongly rooted and still predominantly studied in Western or WEIRD Western educated industrialized rich and democratic contexts e.g. North American and Western European Only recently has there been more of a conscious effort to study identity in non Western or non WEIRD contexts This edited volume investigates identity from primarily a non Western perspective by studying non Western contexts and non Western minority or immigrant groups living in Western contexts The contributions a) examine different aspects of identity e.g. personal identity social identity online identity as either independent or interrelated constructs b) consider the associations of these constructs with aspects of intergroup relations acculturative processes and/or psychological well being c) document the advancement in research on identity in underrepresented groups contexts and regions such as Africa Asia Eastern Europe the Middle East and South America and d) evaluate different approaches to the study of identity and the implications thereof This book is intended for cultural or cross cultural academics practitioners educators social workers postgraduate students undergraduate students and scholars interested in studying identity It provides insight into how identity in non Western groups and contexts may both be informed by and may inform Western theoretical perspectives Budget of the United States Government United States.
