Contrastive Rhetoric in Shona and English Juliet Thondhlana, 2000 The influence of the learner's mother tongue on the use of a second language has long been of interest within applied linguistics Whilst most studies have focused on the sentence level contrastive rhetoric has broadened this area of investigation to the levels of discourse and text This study explores and applies the approach to written English and Shona of Shona native speakers in Zimbabwe It is both theoretical and practical highlighting the importance of multi dimensional and non evaluative analytical frameworks and providing information for second language teachers and learners

Crafting Dissent Hinda Mandell, 2019-10-25 Pussyhats typically crafted with yarn quite literally created a sea of pink the day after Donald J Trump became the 45th president of the United States in January 2017 as the inaugural Women's March unfolded throughout the U S and sister cities globally But there was nothing new about women crafting as a means of dissent Crafting Dissent Handicraft as Protest from the American Revolution to the Pussyhats is the first book that demonstrates how craft typically involving the manipulation of yarn thread and fabric has also been used as a subversive tool throughout history and up to the present day to push back against government policy and social norms that crafters perceive to be harmful to them their bodies their families their ideals relating to equality and human rights and their aspirations At the heart of the book is an exploration for how craft is used by makers to engage with the rhetoric and policy shaping their country's public sphere. The book is divided into three sections: Crafting Histories, Politics of Craft, and Crafting Cultural Conversations. Three features make this a unique contribution to the field of craft activism and history: The inclusion of diverse contributors from a global perspective including from England, Ireland, India, New Zealand, Australia; Essay formats including photo essays, personal essays, and scholarly investigations; The variety of professional backgrounds among the book's contributors including academics, museum curators, art therapists, small business owners, provocateurs, artists, and makers. This book explains that while handicraft and craft motivated activism may appear to be all the rage and of the moment, a long thread reveals its roots as far back as the founding of American Democracy and at key turning points throughout the history of nations throughout the world.

Oral Tradition in Southern Africa Ngwabi Bhebe, 2002 Africana-Sammlung und Africana-Katalog in der Stadtbibliothek Winterthur : Band 3: 1982-1990 Stadtbibliothek Winterthur, 1977 Band 3

Zambezia, 2001 Social Motivations for Codeswitching Carol Myers-Scotton, 1993 Codeswitching may be broadly defined as the use of two or more linguistic varieties in the same conversation. Using data from multilingual African context, Carol Myers-Scotton advances a theoretical argument which aims at a general explanation of the motivations underlying the phenomenon. She treats codeswitching as a type of skilled performance, not as the alternative strategy of a person who cannot carry on a conversation in the language in which it began. Speakers exploit the socio-psychological values associated with different linguistic varieties in a particular speech community by switching codes; speakers negotiate a change in social distance between themselves and other participants in a conversation. Switching between languages has much in common with making stylistic choices within the same language: it is as if bilingual and multilingual speakers have an additional style at their command when they engage in codeswitching.

In Dark Water Lynne McEwan, 2021-06-24 Beneath the surface lie deadly secrets. DI Shona Oliver agreed to move to Dumfries with her ex-banker husband when their teenage daughter got in with a bad crowd in London. As a Glasgow native, she's back on home turf. Living on the shores of the Solway Firth allows Shona to continue as an RNLI volunteer and a call out to recover a woman's body indicates foul play. Police in Cumbria take the case but links back to Scotland keep Shona's team involved. As they investigate reports of people trafficking and a spate of thefts from local shops compete for attention with a large-scale drug bust. But Shona's work may all be in vain when those close to her threaten to tear the case apart and ruin Shona in the process. An unforgettable debut novel by a Scottish crime writer to watch for fans of Val McDermid, Marion Todd, and Lin Anderson. Praise for In Dark Water: A stunning and beautifully observed novel. Shona Oliver is a well-drawn figure, engaging a lot of empathy from the reader in this absolutely fantastic debut. Caro Ramsay, author of Absolution. A thrilling new voice in Scottish crime fiction. Marion Todd, author of See Them Run. A fast-paced debut detective novel set on the shores of the Solway Firth. The Herald. Being an avid reader, particularly in Scottish Crime fiction, this book not to mention the author is up there with the best, and in Shona Oliver we have a character in whom I hope there is considerable mileage NetGalley review What a ride Lynne McEwan pulled me in and wouldn't let me go NetGalley review In Dark Water is a very well written suspense novel There are enough twists and turns to keep you interested until the very end The descriptions were so vivid it made me feel as if I was right there in Scotland The characters were well crafted and the ending was a surprise NetGalley review
