

Sample Expungement Letter to Judge

Dear Judge [Last Name],

I am writing this letter to request that my criminal record be expunged. I was convicted of [crime] in [year] and completed my sentence [time frame]. Since then, I have worked hard to turn my life around and become a law-abiding citizen.

I understand that my conviction may have created a negative impression of me, and I regret my actions. However, I have learned from my mistakes and have taken steps to improve myself. I have obtained a steady job and have been an active member of my community, volunteering at local charities and mentoring at-risk youth.

I believe that having my criminal record expunged will allow me to fully move on from my past mistakes and continue to be a productive member of society. It will also provide me with better employment opportunities and allow me to provide for my family.

I have enclosed all the necessary paperwork, including my completed expungement application and relevant court documents. I respectfully request that you consider my request and grant my expungement.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
