Dear [USCIS Officer],

I am writing to you today to express the extreme hardship that my family and I will face if my (family member's relationship) (Person) is not granted a (Immigration status adjustment). (Person) is an integral member of our family, and our lives would be significantly impacted if they were unable to continue living and working in the United States.

The primary reason for our concern is that the extreme hardship that we will face if (Person) is forced to leave the United States will be devastating for our family. We have built a life in the United States over the past (length of time), and we have become fully integrated into our local community. We have established close relationships with our neighbors, colleagues, and friends, and our children have grown up in the United States.

(Person) has established a successful career in their field and is highly respected by their colleagues and others. They have worked hard to build a strong reputation in their industry, and we are all proud of their achievements. If (Person) is forced to leave the United States, we will face significant financial loss.

Furthermore, if (Person) is forced to leave the United States, our family's emotional well-being will be severely impacted. (Person) is a source of love and support for all of us, and their absence would leave a void that we have come to rely on. We are deeply concerned about the emotional toll that this separation would take on our family.

In addition to financial and emotional hardship, we are deeply concerned about our family's safety. If we are forced to return to our country of origin, (Person) would face a significant risk to our well-being and personal safety due to (provide specific reasons for safety concerns). We fear for our family's security and well-being if we are forced to return to our home country.

Given the extreme hardship that our family will face if (Person) is not granted a (Immigration status adjustment), I respectfully request that you consider our situation carefully and with compassion. We have provided all the necessary supporting documentation to demonstrate the hardship that we will face if (Person) is unable to continue living and working in the United States.

We appreciate your consideration of our family's unique circumstances and respectfully ask that you grant (Person) a (Immigration status adjustment) to allow our family to continue living and working in the United States.

Thank you for your time and understanding.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

50 years after his death as related in the last chapter of the book But because of the fame of his anti Nazi writings and broadcasts the Kerrs were forced to flee from Berlin as early as 3 March 1933 when Hitler came to power The author and his sister Judith later to become a famous author of childrens books had a relatively happy cosmopolitan childhood in Zurich Paris Nice and ultimately England But their parents lives remained on the edge of poverty and sometimes despair and there was never again a family home The memoirs then tell of his years at Aldenham School and the beginnings of Cambridge and of his assimilation into the English way of life They relate the story of his internment as an enemy alien in 1940 and of his subsequent release and service as a pilot in the Royal Air Force until the end of World War II The author then returned to Cambridge to finish his law degree and was urged to go the Bar The later chapters of this autobiography are mainly devoted to the law They recount the authors career as a leading commercial Junior and then a Silk his initial hesitations about the Bench but ultimately culminating in his appointment as a Lord Justice of Appeal He describes the Bar of the post war decades and is frank about the frustrations and disappointments of his career He also provides insights into the oddities of the English legal system but maintaining throughout his firm belief in the importance of an independent Bar La Raza ,1972

The Friend ,1888 Aloysius Bertrand's Gaspard de la Nuit Beyond the Prose Poem Valentina Gosetti,2016-03-22 Aloysius Bertrand s Gaspard de la Nuit 1842 is a familiar title to music lovers thanks to Ravel s piano work of the same name and to specialists of French literature especially those interested in Baudelaire s prose poetry Yet until very recently the collection and its author have generally been viewed almost exclusively through the prism of their pioneering role in the development of the prose poem By placing Bertrand back in his original context adopting a comparative approach and engaging with recent critical work on the collection Valentina Gosetti proposes a substantial reassessment of Gaspard de la Nuit and promotes a new understanding of Bertrand in his own terms rather than those of his successors Through his playful and ironic reinterpretation of Romantic clich s and his overt defiance of the boundaries of poetry and beauty Bertrand emerges as a fascinating figure in his own right This book is one of the first full length studies of Bertrand s work and it will be of particular interest to specialists of the nineteenth century and of provincial literature and to students of nineteenth century poetry or the fantastic Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance Anne R. Larsen,Diana Robin,Carole Levin,2007-03-01 This work is a revealing combination of biographies and topical essays that describe the outstanding and often overlooked contributions of women to the science politics and culture of the Renaissance Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance Italy France and England is the first first comprehensive reference devoted exclusively to the contributions of women to European culture in the period between 1350 and 1700 Focusing principally on early modern women in England France and Italy it offers over 135 biographies of the extraordinary women of those times Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance provides vivid portraits of well known women such as Catherine of Siena Joan of Arc Mary Queen of Scots and Christine de Pizan Also included are less familiar but equally important women like Elena Lucrezia Cornaro the first woman in Europe to earn a doctorate the renowned Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi and the acclaimed author of medical textbooks and midwife to a French queen Louise Boursier Based on the latest research and enhanced with thematic essays this groundbreaking work casts our understanding of women s lives and roles in Renaissance history and culture in a provocative new light
