Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima, 2012-07-10 In Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J Sindima provides an unconventional approach to the study of world religions Often books and courses on religious studies focus on the major world religions This approach however frequently ignores other religious experiences such as those of various African groups as well as the indigenous people of the Americas and Australia These less widespread religions are commonly described in pejorative terms such as primitive religions or non literate religions Focusing solely on well known religions is an approach that impoverishes religious studies and deprives students of the enormous wealth of religious knowledge of the world Introduction to Religious Studies pulls together the diverse religious experience of Africans Native Americans and the indigenous peoples of Australia in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to the study of religion and broaden the horizons of religious studies students Under each theme or topic examples are drawn from religions of salvation as well as African and Native American religious traditions This book provides students with a deep wide and very rich introduction to religious studies The Soapstone Birds of Great Zimbabwe Edward Matenga, 1998 Beautifully produced and illustrated this study of the Zimbabwean birds is more than a description or history of the eight soapstone carvings found at the Great Zimbabwe historical site It offers an insight into an aspect of the cultural heritage of Zimbabwe and an interpretation of the important site of Great Zimbabwe from which it is inherited The story of the birds is used to explore themes in Zimbabwean historiography By focusing on the religious symbolism of the birds the author argues that the Great Zimbabwe site was both a political and religious centre Practically the work illustrates the central symbolic meaning of the birds to the people and nation of Zimbabwe And the work is in the context of the construction of an authentic national history In a foreward the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Zimbabwe says that the birds are constitutents of a living tradition embodying the body spirit of the modern national state of Zimbabwe

The Pursuit of the Sacred John Chitakure, 2016-03-03 Globalization has taken the world by storm and has facilitated the unprecedented migrations of the peoples of this world Whether we like it or not we will meet foreigners in our communities schools universities buses and other public places But when people migrate they take their religions with them If people of different religious traditions are to live side by side amicably interfaith dialogue becomes imperative But for people to be able to speak about their own religions with enlightenment and listen to other people s religious beliefs with respect they must have some basic knowledge of how faiths and believers operate because for some people religion is inseparably intertwined with their economics politics and everyday lives This book clearly and concisely introduces religious studies to the reader It makes a strong case for the quest and study of world religions and explores the challenges controversies and methodological issues in the study of religions It also explores other pertinent religious issues such as beliefs rituals myths sacredness morality the problem of evil and interreligious dialogue Although written from a classroom perspective this book can be useful to any reader who would like to acquire knowledge of religious issues
