OECD Public Governance Reviews Brazil's Federal Court of Accounts Insight and Foresight for Better

Governance OECD,2017-08-07 This report suggests concrete steps Brazil s Federal Court of Accounts can take to adapt its own strategies approaches and audit programming to provide valuable insight and foresight to policy makers in the centre of government The Oxford Guide to the Transeurasian Languages Martine Robbeets,Alexander Savelyev,2020-06-26 The

Oxford Guide to the Transeurasian Languages provides a comprehensive account of the Transeurasian languages and is the first major reference work in the field since 1965 The term Transeurasian refers to a large group of geographically adjacent languages that includes five uncontroversial linguistic families Japonic Koreanic Tungusic Mongolic and Turkic The historical connection between these languages however constitutes one of the most debated issues in historical comparative linguistics In the present book a team of leading international scholars in the field take a balanced approach to this controversy integrating different theoretical frameworks combining both functional and formal linguistics and showing that genealogical and areal approaches are in fact compatible with one another The volume is divided into five parts Part I deals with the historical sources and periodization of the Transeurasian languages and their classification and typology In Part II chapters provide individual structural overviews of the Transeurasian languages and the linguistic subgroups that they belong to while Part III explores Transeurasian phonology morphology syntax lexis and semantics from a comparative perspective Part IV offers a range of areal and genealogical explanations for the correlations observed in the preceding parts Finally Part V combines archaeological genetic and anthropological perspectives on the identity of speakers of Transeurasian languages The Oxford Guide to the Transeurasian Languages will be an indispensable resource for specialists in Japonic Koreanic Tungusic Mongolic and Turkic languages and for anyone with an interest in Transeurasian and comparative linguistics more broadly management Includes the first analysis of the NEC4 Alliance Contract the FAC 1 Framework Alliance Contract and the TAC 1 Term Alliance Contract A History of Fort Worth in Black & White Richard F. Selcer,2015-12-15 A History of Fort Worth in Black White fills a long empty niche on the Fort Worth bookshelf a scholarly history of the city s black community that starts at the beginning with Ripley Arnold and the early settlers and comes down to today with our current battles over education housing and representation in city affairs The book s sidebars on some noted and some not so noted African Americans make it appealing as a school text as well as a book for the general reader Using a wealth of primary sources Richard Selcer dispels several enduring myths for instance the mistaken belief that Camp Bowie trained only white soldiers and the spurious claim that Fort Worth managed to avoid the racial violence that plagued other American cities in the twentieth century Selcer arrives at some surprisingly frank conclusions that will challenge current politically correct notions Reshaping International Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Paul G. Nixon,Vanessa P. Dennen,Rajash Rawal,2021-02-21 This volume provides a broad examination of how technology and globalisation have influenced contemporary higher education institutions and how moves towards internationalisation within and between educational providers continue to be a force for change in this context Showcasing the varied responses to and utilisation of new technologies to support international teaching and learning endeavours at a range of higher education institutions this book introduces content from around the world emphasising the global importance of the internationalisation of education Featuring contributions from some fresh young voices alongside the work of experienced and internationally renowned scholars this collection critically scrutinises the potential of information and communication technologies ICTs on the capacities and patterns of university education assesses and refines the contention that ICTs are facilitating the re shaping of university practices as well as challenging traditional educational models and learning strategies provides a comprehensive portrait of the ways in which ICT use engages higher education providers society and individuals to facilitate potentially more democratic globally focussed access to knowledge generation creation investigation and consumption processes through internationally focussed education and examines the differing pace and scope of change in international educational practice and context between and within countries and disciplines With an international range of carefully chosen contributors this book is a must read text for practitioners academics researchers administrators policymakers and anyone interested in the future of the university in an information age Trail of Footprints Alex Hidalgo,2019-07-12 Trail of Footprints offers an intimate glimpse into the commission circulation and use of indigenous maps from colonial Mexico A collection of one hundred largely unpublished maps from the late sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries made in the southern region of Oaxaca anchors an analysis of the way ethnically diverse societies produced knowledge in colonial settings Mapmaking proposes Hidalgo formed part of an epistemological shift tied to the negotiation of land and natural resources between the region s Spanish Indian and mixed race communities The craft of making maps drew from social memory indigenous and European conceptions of space and ritual and Spanish legal practices designed to adjust spatial boundaries in the New World Indigenous mapmaking brought together a distinct coalition of social actors Indian leaders native towns notaries surveyors judges artisans merchants muleteers collectors and painters who participated in the critical observation of the region s geographic features Demand for maps reconfigured technologies associated with the making of colorants adhesives and paper that drew from Indian botany and experimentation trans Atlantic commerce and Iberian notarial culture The maps in this study reflect a regional perspective associated with Oaxaca s decentralized organization its strategic position amidst a network of important trade routes that linked central Mexico to Central America and the ruggedness and diversity of its physical landscape

Liminal Reality and Transformational Power

Timothy Carson,2016-04-28 Liminal Reality and Transformational Power explores draws together and integrates the many facets of liminality and informs our understanding of liminal phenomena in the world Through anthropology sociology theology neurology and psychology Carson correlates exterior transitions with their corresponding intra psychic movements and points toward useful methods that contribute to personal and social transformation In this revised edition Carson has recognised the resurgence of liminality and addresses the social transitions that are prevalent today in communities around the world He examines the identity of the liminal person and highlights the role of ritual leaders and religious professionals as they guide people through liminal time and space Carson s work greatly contributes to an expanded understanding of the complex dimensions of religious leadership and provides useful insight into our intra psychic processes during the significant transitional stages in life

Brazil International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2018-11-29 Brazil is the largest country in Latin America with a varied geography and a population of over 200 million spread across 26 diverse states generating wide ranging infrastructure needs Over the decades many government investment initiatives have been launched to address these needs however there remains a significant infrastructure gap in Brazil which continues to hamper growth potential Over the past two decades public investment has been considerably below the regional and income group averages and this has translated into much lower capital stock Public investment averaged around 2 percent of GDP during the period 1995 to 2015 compared with 6.4 percent for Emerging Market Economies (EME) and 5.5 percent for Latin American Countries (LAC) As a result public capital stock in 2015 was only 35 percent of GDP compared with an average of 92 for EME and 87 for LAC
